The class of 1925 dedicates this volume of the Royal Blue in appreciation of his services to Wa-Hi and of his efforts to place this school foremost in the field of Northwestern Athletics.

* Foreword *

IN the years to come when your paths diverge and the friends you knew are gone, may you turn the leaves of the Royal Blue and remember the days gone by. * May you recall those friends whom you knew so well and feel again the Wa-Hi spirit. * For it, like the call of the West, is an echo of the great movement of those early pioneers who gave their all that we might prosper in the land of golden wealth. * We, the editors, shall endeavor to make this annual predominate with their spirit.

The Faculty

A school is not a building, nor is it a course of study and a set of text-books. It is, in a very real way, a faculty and a student body. Our school has its character and acquires its reputation because of the standard of its people—teachers and students. The tone of good citizenship and sincerity established by those who are here to lead is an all-important factor in our teaching organization just as the high average of cooperation and fervor of loyalty among our students have been the factors making possible the length of life of our system of student government.

I am continually conscious of the good fortune of the Walla Walla High School in having a faculty of real, capable, and sympathetic instructors. In their work they have shown themselves able; in their relations with students they have proved helpful; in their own associations they have been most congenial.

It is a pleasant honor to be permitted to work with such men and women.

W. A. LACEY, Principal.

As we, the members of the class of 1924, graduate we look back over four years of many and varied activities.

Our class conducted a very successful smoker to raise money for the Junior Prom, which was one of the best the Walla Walla High School has ever had. The inter-class basketball honors for both boys and girls were won by this class during our Junior year. We have shown the musical ability of our class every year in the musical contest. The majority of the members of the football and basketball teams, which have won state honors, came from our class.

We have tried to live up to the traditions and ideals of our school by supporting student government, dress reform, and interclass activities.

This year the Senior class play, "His Majesty Bunker Bean," was an example of what an ambitious and "peppy" class can produce. Not only was the cast an excellent one, but the play was very humorous with an exceedingly clever plot.

We hope that in the future the record of each member of the class of 1924 will reflect honor upon the Walla Walla High School.

As we leave, we wish to express our sincere gratitude to the teachers at Wa-Hi who have so patiently guided us through our four years of school work. To the underclassmen we bequeath the opportunities that have been ours, and we wish for teachers and students alike a happy and prosperous future.

The Junior Class has experienced a much more successful year than it could ever have dreamed. Heretofore, hampered by the lack of class and school spirit among the majority of the class, the class of '24 did not contribute much moral or material support to Wa-Hi. This class was known only by the efforts of loyal individuals. Realizing the responsibility resting upon the Junior Class of any High School, our class began her long delayed work in September 1923. At this time a well selected Annual Staff, advised by Miss Boucher, was started on the road to the production of a bigger and better Royal Blue. Sponsored by a well chosen group of officers, the class saw its Boys Basketball Team win the interclass tournament; it saw the girls with a new and inexperienced team acquit themselves very well, and place one girl on the All Star Team. In the fall it produced a Carnival which, besides being a social success, netted the class nearly sixty dollars towards the fund for the Junior Prom.

We started the second semester with one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in Wa-Hi. A winning group of officers was elected to lead the class through the last semester. The class under the guidance of these leaders, produced a Prom on April 26, which was a marked success from every conceivable angle. Most favorable reports are coming from the Royal Blue and it looks very much as if we were going to be able to boast of the production of the best Royal Blue yet produced.

With these facts before you we are letting you judge the status of the class and will leave you to speculate on the possibilities of this class when as Seniors, they guide the destinies of the entire school and bend their efforts toward bringing greater glory to Wa-Hi.

The Sophomores have shown their willingness to co-operate with Wa-Hi in every activity that has come up this year. For example, the Sophomores took the hat in the first Wa-Hi Frolic of the year with the clever dance by two of the members.

The girls of the class gave a polar bar sale which was successful and materially increased the finances of the class.

The Sophomores have had two good groups of officers who have conducted the class in a way that tends to increase the enthusiasm and pep of all the members.

We had the chance to show some more of our latent ability in the music contest. All the class needs is the opportunity to prove its talent and worth.

We have been praised by our student body president for our aid in helping student government. We are going to live up to the standard we have set for ourselves and next year we will be the peppiest class in Wa-Hi.

After a period of time given over to becoming acquainted with the school and getting fairly settled in our classes, we Freshmen met in Study C and organized our class for the purpose of developing a feeling of fellowship among all of the "green" newcomers, and to live up to the expectations of the school. We have been very fortunate in having Mrs. Leonard, Miss Underwood, and Miss Yancey as our enthusiastic advisors.

We have been full of life from the very beginning, and everything that we have gone into has been a success. The party that we gave at the Presbyterian Church was very enjoyable and worth while. We entered highly talented musicians in the musical contest, and we plan to do even greater things next year. Any one reading the Honor Rolls can easily see that we have added considerably to the scholarship of the school.

We are sure that it would be absolutely impossible for anybody to say that we have failed to fulfill the anticipations of our friends and to equal the reputations that have been gained by former Freshman classes.

Of course it is not to be expected that we should be as illustrious as the upper classes, but we have students in our ranks who promise to make names for themselves in the near future and to add to the glory of our class. Consequently, we expect to need twice as much space in the Annual next year in which to tell of all our activities.

It is with a feeling of satisfaction and yet with a feeling of regret that the Eh Kah Nam Staff completes its year's work. We have made some mistakes probably, and have planned to do some things that have not matured but hope that next year's staff will profit by our errors. We also sincerely hope that next year's staff will enjoy its work and will receive the co-operation that we have had.

During the past school year we have tried to give the students a magazine that would be enjoyed by them and one that would be a worthy representative of our school when sent to other schools in various states. Our exchanges go not only over the United States but also into Alaska. The magazine has received favorable comment from many eastern schools as well as from western schools.

We have made some radical changes in this year's issues and we believe they have met with your approval. The cover stock was changed to a much heavier and better paper and at times we have had the cover printed in several colors. Instead of having the printing run entirely across the pages we now have the pages printed in two columns. We have stressed particularly the art work. Practically all of the cuts run in the Eh Kah Nam this year have been new. We know you have enjoyed the cartoons of which there have been more in this year's publication than in former ones.

The business staff has been most active and has been the back bone of the Eh Kah Nam. It has made the Eh Kah Nam a financial success as well as a success in all other departments. There will be quite a little surplus left over for a start on next year's work. This year the Eh Kah Nam drew its quota from the student fund for we felt we would rather have a good magazine than to cut our expenses so much.

The staff is very grateful to our advisor, Miss Maxwell, for her willing assistance and advice throughout the year.

We wish next year's staff the joy we have had, for few students realize the thrill which accompanies the hard work of putting out a worth while publication like the Eh Kah Nam.

OUR AIM

This year it has been the aim of the Annual Staff to publish a volume of the Royal Blue that will not only be a complete, authentic and attractive record of the activities of Wa-Hi but will also serve as a reminder of the great pageant of pioneers whose daring and courage made possible the existence of our institutions and enterprises. Every page should bring to the reader an inspiration from that indomitable spirit of the West. If the spirit and unity of this issue of the Royal Blue pleases you, we shall be satisfied. If not, this work has been wasted and our efforts have been in vain.

APPRECIATION

To those willing people who have co-operated with the Annual Staff, we, the editors, wish to extend our thanks. We take this opportunity to show our appreciation to the following organizations and individuals who have aided us: The Advertisers, the Wa-Hi Student Body, the Eh Kah Nam, the Magnavox, the Harris Studio, Edith Lambert, Ruth Osterman, Raymond Woods, Francis Rourke, Paul Rourke, Louise Tellier, Mr. Ben Smith, Miss Dorothy Chesley, David Leher and Miss Laura E. The Senate of Wa-Hi is bringing to a close a very successful year. This may be a surprise to many of the students who think that the clubs one hears the most about are, in general, the most active and best. It is not the aim of the Senate or any of its members to make the club a much talked of organization. We wished to perform our work without comments and this we have done.

It is true that the Senate carried on no social affairs during the early part of the year. However the social calendar for the second semester included an attractive Senate dance and the Annual Senate Banquet.

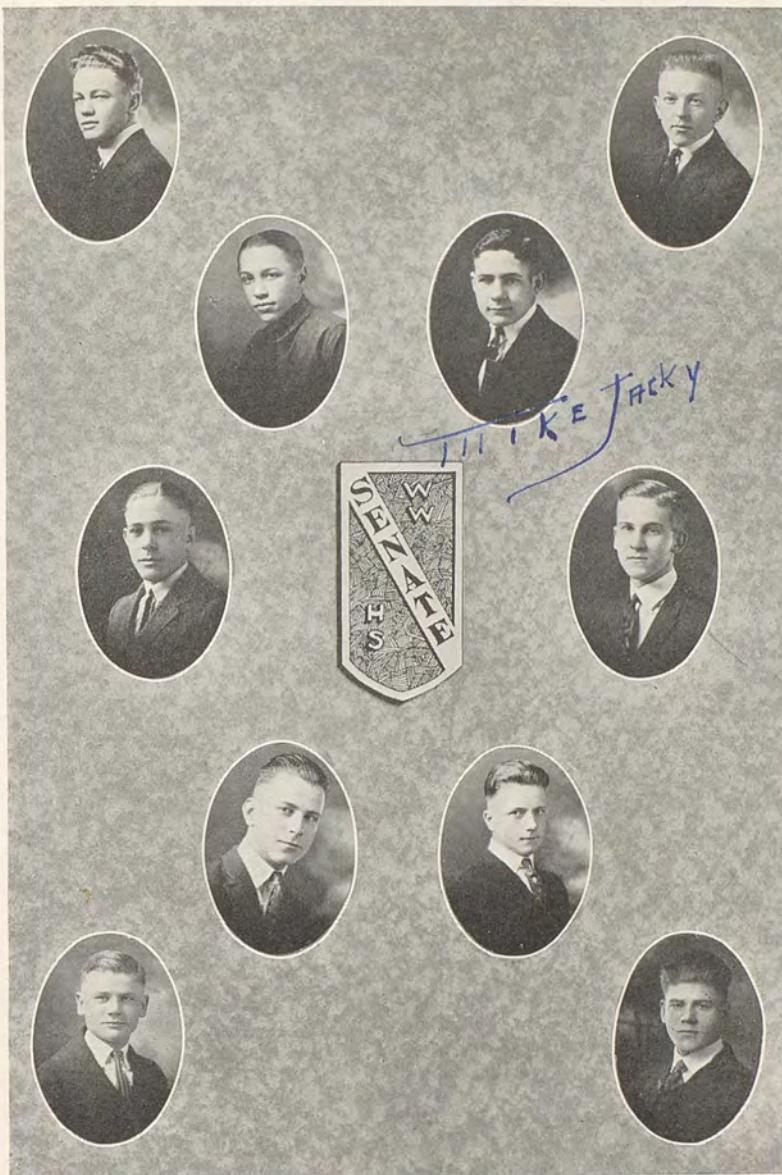

The Senate has held official business meetings and entertaining social meetings. Senators have learned to appreciate the value of comradeship. Members of the organization know how to work together.

As a literary organization, the Senate has aided Wa-Hi by boosting literary activities.

The Senate is composed of boys who are leaders. The roll contains the names of presidents, editors and captains. Those boys who have won honors in scholarship or leadership are usually members of the Senate. The alumni who have made a place in the world recall, with pleasure, their membership in this organization.

The graduating Senators leave the responsibility of government to the Junior Senators. All eyes are turned toward the future. Next year the Senate will be bigger and better than ever.

Tillicum Campfire has come to the end of a very successful year, a year which has brought its members a great deal of joy and satisfaction in the tasks accomplished, the honors gained and the pleasures enjoyed. At Christmas time the girls played Santa Claus to two families and sang carols about the streets and in the church. Upon the day of love and friendship,—that is St. Valentine's day, what could have been more fitting than to send messages of love and cheer to girls who are indebted to a Campfire girl, Pavlowa, for their home, food, clothing and everything which makes life worth while?

We are indeed proud that out of thirteen seniors who are charter members of the National Honor Society five were Campfire girls and three of these were from our own group, Tillicum. We had a wonderful representation at the conference in Seattle and because of the enthusiasm created we are pushing with all our might toward the goal set by Walla Walla Campfires, a headquarters of our own.

Now for Camp! Once again we gathered about the fireplace in Clark's cabin and laughed, talked, sang and ate. Of course there were less pleasant things to be done, such as carrying the wood and washing dishes, but these duties only served to call up happy and often ridiculous memories of jokes or tricks played upon some member of the party. In all these things we do, we are happy, and we always shall be happy, thus following the last and most important law of the Fire.

It has been the aim of Gimmel Teth Society this year to sustain the organized spirit which so typifies the ideal of Wa-Hi's student body and to be a credit to the school that shelters it. To this end, the girls have labored long and earnestly, with results that can be seen by a review of the past year.

Let us consider the Gimmel Teth's calendar. Under the academic heading comes our educational meetings which have been most inspirational, dealing as they have with literary and musical topics. Even etiquette has had its place upon the club's programme, as one entire meeting was given over to a discussion of proper behavior and dress for all occasions.

Socially, Gimmel Teth's year has been a notable one. The dance given with the El Adreas was conspicuous as an artistic as well as a social triumph. Next came the progressive dinner that will remain in the minds of the members as one of the outstanding good times of the school year.

We cannot stress strongly enough the benefit of the Gimmel Teth Society as a girls' organization, upon the life of the school. The girls have done their best to be representative students, working consistently to attain the necessary grade average of eighty-two per cent and reaping their reward with a glorious average of eighty-six per cent.

After reviewing this past year and considering the successful ones that came before it, we believe that the Gimmel Teth girls will always stand as leaders in Wa-Hi and that success will ever crown their efforts in all school activities.

Without a doubt the El Adrea Society has spent one of the most successful years in its history for the members have tried to keep up the ideals of Wa-Hi and, in general, support all Wa-Hi activities.

We have given many delightful social affairs, never-the-less, the literary requirements have not been forgotten. Every month an educational meeting has been held at the home of a member. Among the interesting subjects that have been discussed are: proper dress, etiquette, music and plays.

The social events for the year include home meetings, a progressive dinner, a Mother's Tea, a banquet, picnics and dances, one of which was given March the twenty-eighth, at the Clinton Court ball room. At this dance the State Basketball Champions were guests of honor.

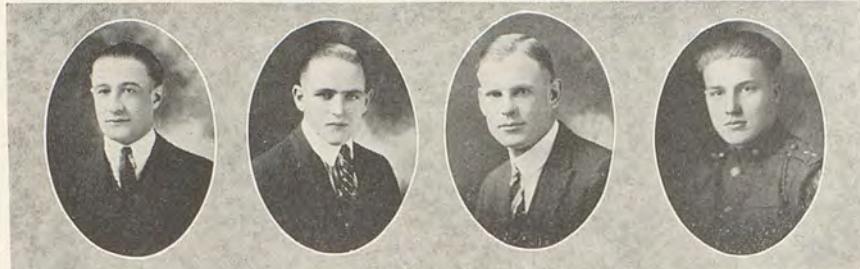

This is the second year the society has kept up scholastic averages. In order to maintain membership in the club, the girls must make an average of 80 per cent in four regular subjects. There have been very few girls dropped, for they realize that if they are not up to the average they cannot take part in any activity of the society.

On April the eighteenth, the El Adrea and Gimmel Teth Societies gave an assembly before the students and townspeople. The purpose was to raise more money for the library fund. It was decided that this was the best way in which the two societies could contribute toward the betterment of the school. The El Adrea always keeps in mind that a live organization helps to keep up a strong school spirit.

The best, peppiest organization in the school is the W. W. Club. The record set by this club during the past two years speaks for itself. Our President Fred Boewer, and our able Secretary and Treasurer Clarence Zimmerman have kept the activities of the club at a high pitch.

The big W. W. smoker, and the W. W. dance both of which were very successful are examples of the work of the organization. When the basketball team needed money to go back to Chicago the W. W. Club was on deck selling tickets and helping to raise the cash. When the crisis came the Club gave fifty dollars out of its treasury.

Membership in this club is earned only by those who have performed a great service to the school by being a member of one of the athletic teams. The principle of service upon which the club was organized is also the motive for its activities. This is the reason that the club is always doing something to boost Wa-Hi.

The club has been a little bit hampered during this year on account of the lack of members. Many of last year's members graduated and only three new members were added after the football season. In addition to this, a number of members have left school during the year. Nevertheless the club is, and will continue to be, the strongest, and most loyal organization in old Wa-Hi.

If you ever took the time to notice it, did you ever wonder at the similarity of club reports in school publications? If not, take a day off and look into the matter. A startling degree of sameness will be discovered in the majority of cases. Every reporter gives an account of the fine things which his club has accomplished socially and educationally during the past year, and as a result of the enumerated functions maintains that his group is undoubtedly the acknowledged superior of the others. In spite of the fact that every club in Wa-Hi unblushingly asserts that it is the best, in the course of reasoning it becomes evident that only one is foremost.

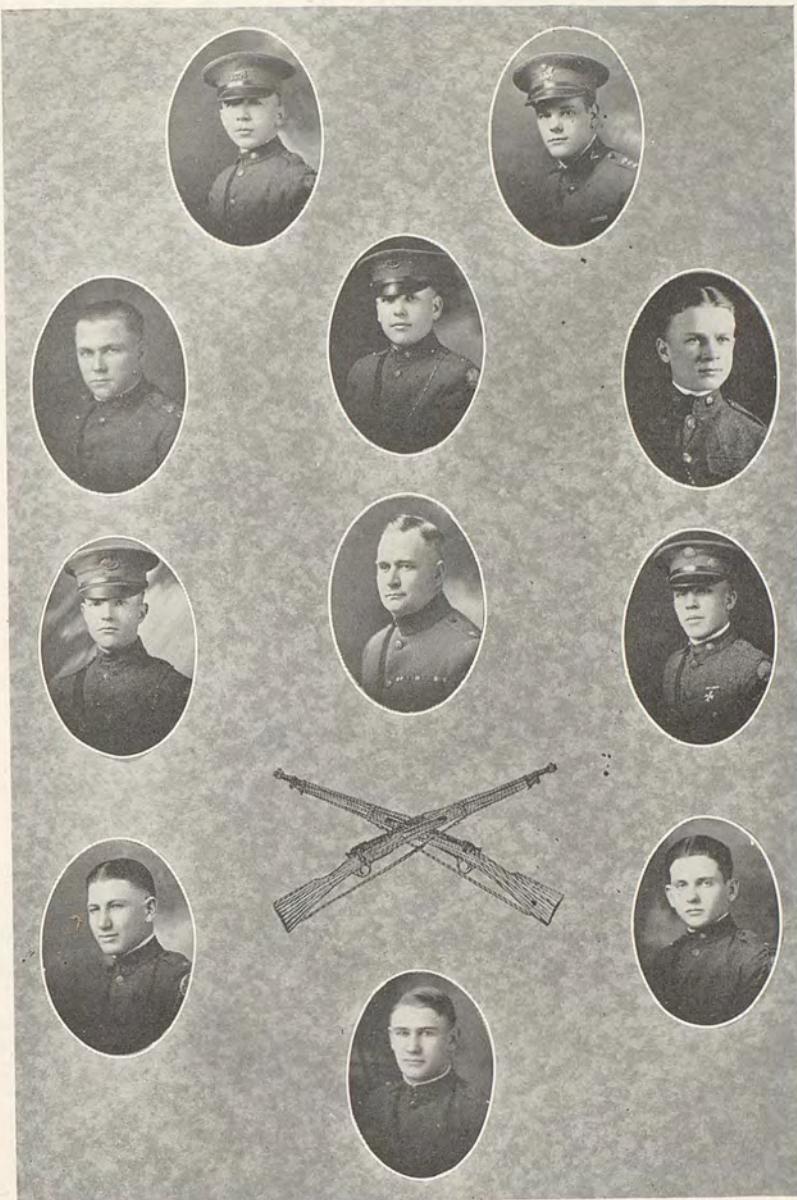

To be perfectly honest, it is my intention to show the school why the officers Club is the best boys' club in Wa-Hi.

The personnel of our club includes four class presidents, five members of the unit rifle team, which so recently distinguished itself by taking third place in the Ninth Corps Area and made such a creditable showing in the National Match. Besides these promising members the club boasts an artist or two, a mechanic, a radio nut and last but far from least, Fifteen Live Wa-Hi Boosters.

The purpose of this organization being to promote the welfare of the local R. O. T. C. unit, we have not felt it amiss to devote not only our educational meetings to discussion of problems pertaining to the betterment of the Battalion, but also a good part of our social and business meetings. We feel that we have done a great deal of good in this connection.

The functions in which we have participated are as follows: The Sponsors Dance, the Officers Club Informal Dance, the Officers Club Annual Formal Ball, the Officers Club General High School Dance, an All-School Matinee Dance and the Wa-Hi Battalion Ball. The club has spent a good deal of time and energy on plans for the Grand Annual Military Tournament.

*The Non-Com Club has leaders fine,
Who smashed that fighting football line,
Their banquet was a great success,
As hikers, they pass all the rest.
The Non-Coms all are full of pep,
Whene'er they drill they keep the step.
They know their "stuff" and thus they show,
The way real boys make good things go.*

The Non-Com Club is one of the liveliest clubs of the school although it has been organized for only a short time in comparison with most of the clubs. This last year has been a very active year for the club.

During the latter part of the football season the Non-Com Club played the Officers Club. Because the Non-Coms had been coached by the famous Notre Dame coaches Lyman Lynn and "Terrible" Tabor, they brought home the bacon with a score 33-0. The newspapers said the Non-Coms showed the "putties" how to play ball.

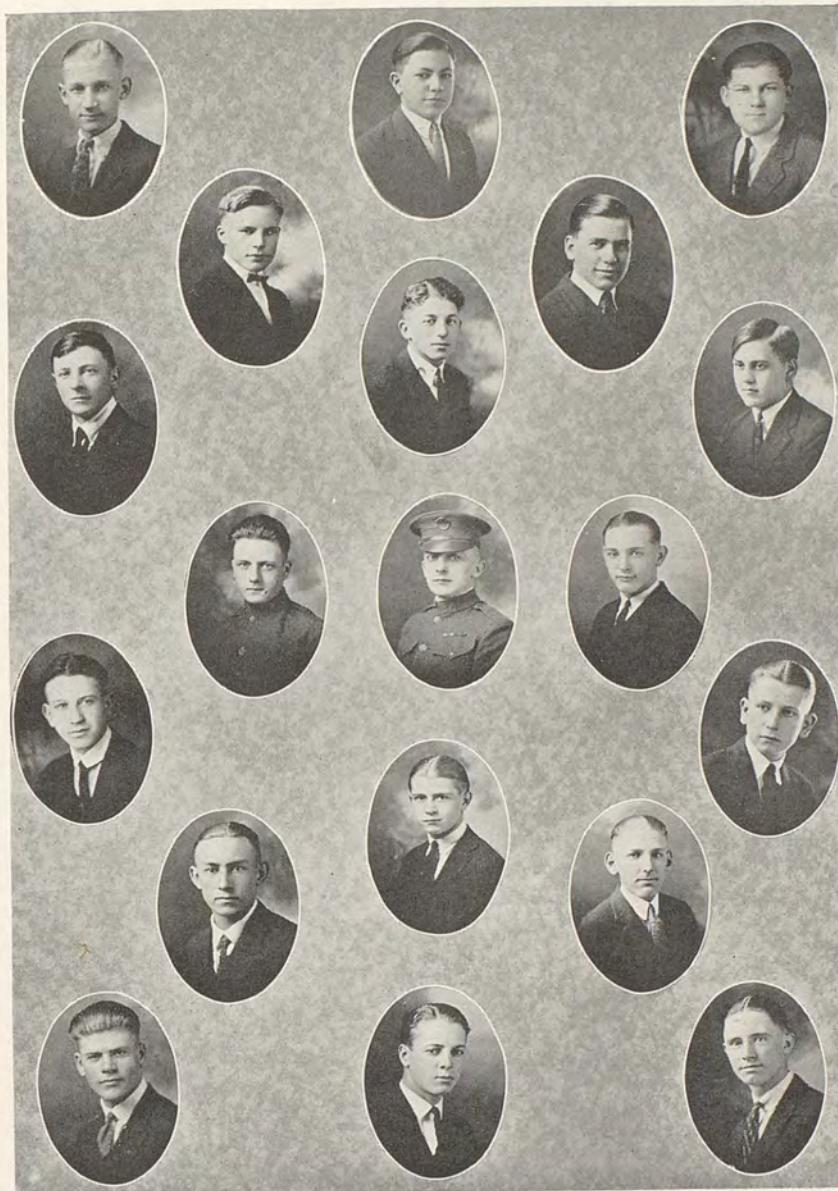

In the early part of March the Non-Coms had their third annual banquet at which Major Holmes and Mr. Lacey were the main speakers.

During the spring vacation the club had a peppy camp at Kooskooskie. Here they celebrated their third annual hike with a large birthday cake. Every member who attended the hike enjoyed a glorious vacation in that little tented village on the banks of tumbling Mill Creek.

As a climax of the year's activities, the club held a very enjoyable dance.

The whole school knows that the Non-Coms have had a very successful year.

A review of the year shows that the Agricultural Club has again maintained the prominent place in school activities that it has held in other years.

Winning of the Associated Student Body's ticket selling contest was the first achievement of the year.

On October twelfth and thirteenth the Club put on a school agricultural fair at the Tierney-Toner building. For a first attempt, this was considered a very successful affair.

In November the club sent its stock-judging team to the Pacific International Live Stock Show at Portland where the team competed against and defeated twenty other teams from Oregon, Idaho and Washington and were beaten only by the crack team from Santa Rosa, California.

The biggest event of the year was the play "Back to The Farm," sponsored by the club and presented in the auditorium on March seventh. This was generally recognized as one of the best plays given by a high school cast in recent years.

Special social events of the year were the dance at Clinton Court, March twenty-second, in honor of the play cast and a banquet at Christmas time served by the members themselves, in honor of the alumni.

Meetings have been held regularly and some lively programs given. Among the outside speakers who addressed the club were the Hon. John W. Summers, State Senator O. T. Cornwell and D. W. Barclay.

The club has been handicapped by having to hold its meetings on Friday night when some of its most loyal members find it necessary to be out of town.

During the past year the Vivantes have lived up to their reputation of being loyal Wa-Hi Boosters. They have faithfully sponsored, attended, and upheld all student activities.

The members of 1924 will always remember a dance given in the early spring at the home of Martha Meiners, 1036 Boyer avenue. Many of the girls displayed artistic ability when they attractively decorated the rooms in streamers, balloons, and flowers. The final touch was added when they softly shaded the lights, enhancing greatly the solo dance by Meredith Coon.

The home meetings always provided rollicking enjoyment and the girls will most distinctly remember the special meeting at Viola Yenney's country home, where one of the most pleasant days was spent. The theatre parties were always gay and well attended. The hike and party which were events in the month of May, were very successful. However, the Vivantes did not give their full attention to the pursuit of Pleasure, for many meetings of a serious literary nature were held, which called forth imagination, originality, ingenuity and influenced for the better the grades received in English. The girls endeavored to improve their conversation and, of a certainty, imaginations which seemed stagnant, were developed and urged into action by the annual literary contests. The spirit of comradship has, at all times, been present within this organization.

The standard during the year has been a high one and the girls declare that next year they will continue to maintain and possibly even raise it. Without a doubt the Vivantes Society truly deserves the high esteem in which it is held.

Feeling that an athletic society for girls was necessary, fourteen girls, possessors of "W's" met last fall and drew up a constitution for the first organization of its kind for girls, in Wa-Hi. The name chosen was "Athletae."

The purpose of this organization is to arouse interest in girl's athletics, to develop a spirit of class and school loyalty, to raise scholarship and to develop true sportsmanship.

Membership is open to all girls in Wa-Hi who have won a letter in either basketball, Tennis or Personal Efficiency. Membership is retained through faithful pursuit of at least one of the above mentioned activities; through adherence to the constitution, and through a scholarship standing of 80 per cent.

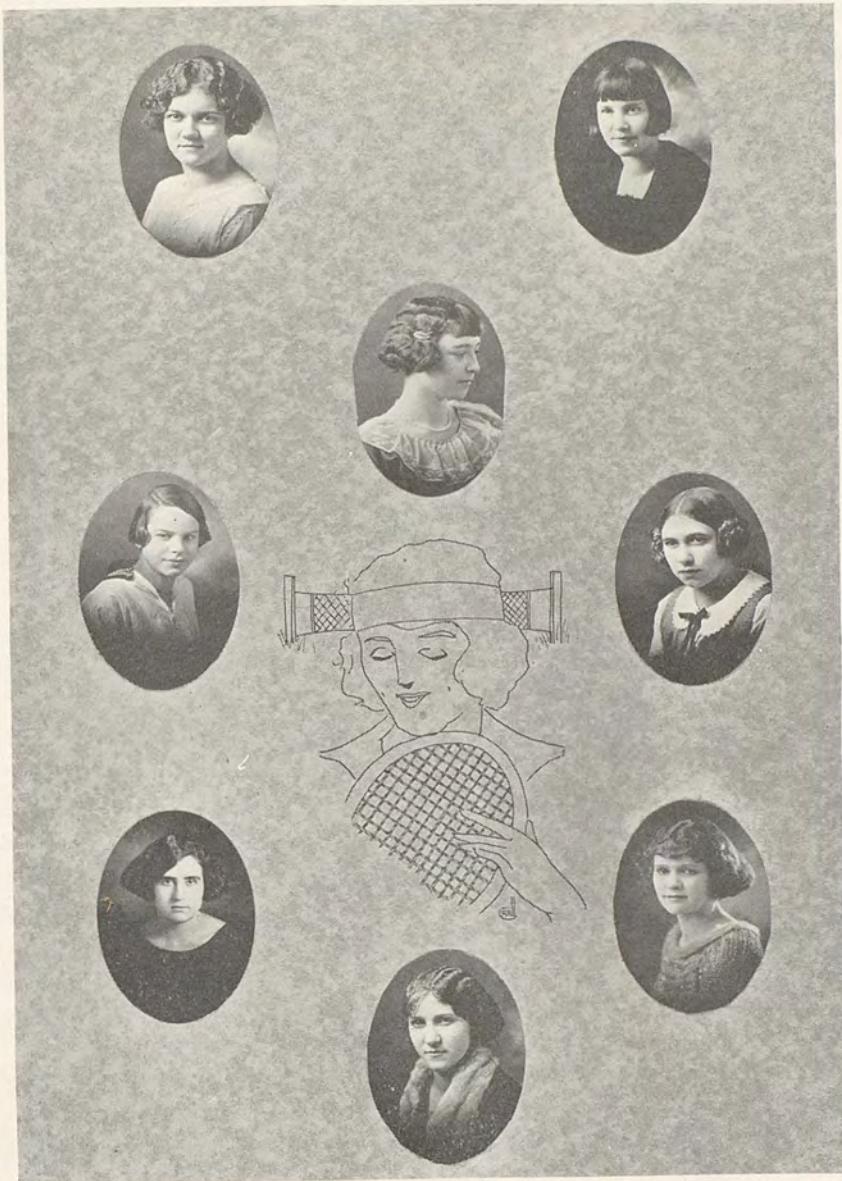

Business and educational meetings are held the first Friday of the month after school in Miss Frey's office at the gym. Attendance has been very good at all these meetings.

Social meetings are held on the fourth Friday of every month. So far a Hallowe'en party, a candy pull, a Christmas party, and a picnic have been enjoyed. Latest plans are for the big basketball picnic to be held in honor of the winning team.

At the present time, since the choosing of the all star team, seven new girls are eligible for membership. They are: Clara Emigh, Kathryn Maple, Alice Flint, Elizabeth Kincheloe, Rita Draper, Iris Hoon and Annabel Maxfield.

Under the leadership of Juanita Frey, Girls Physical Education Director, who originated the idea, "Athletae" the club has advanced very rapidly. Miss Frey has actively supported all the activities that the club has sponsored. All indications point toward an even more successful club in 1924-1925.

Wa-Hi should be proud of her many Campfires; Ayita is proud to be considered one group of that great national organization and we are trying to express this pride by doing just as much for Wa-Hi as is possible. As a group we maintain high scholarship; support student government and develop school spirit.

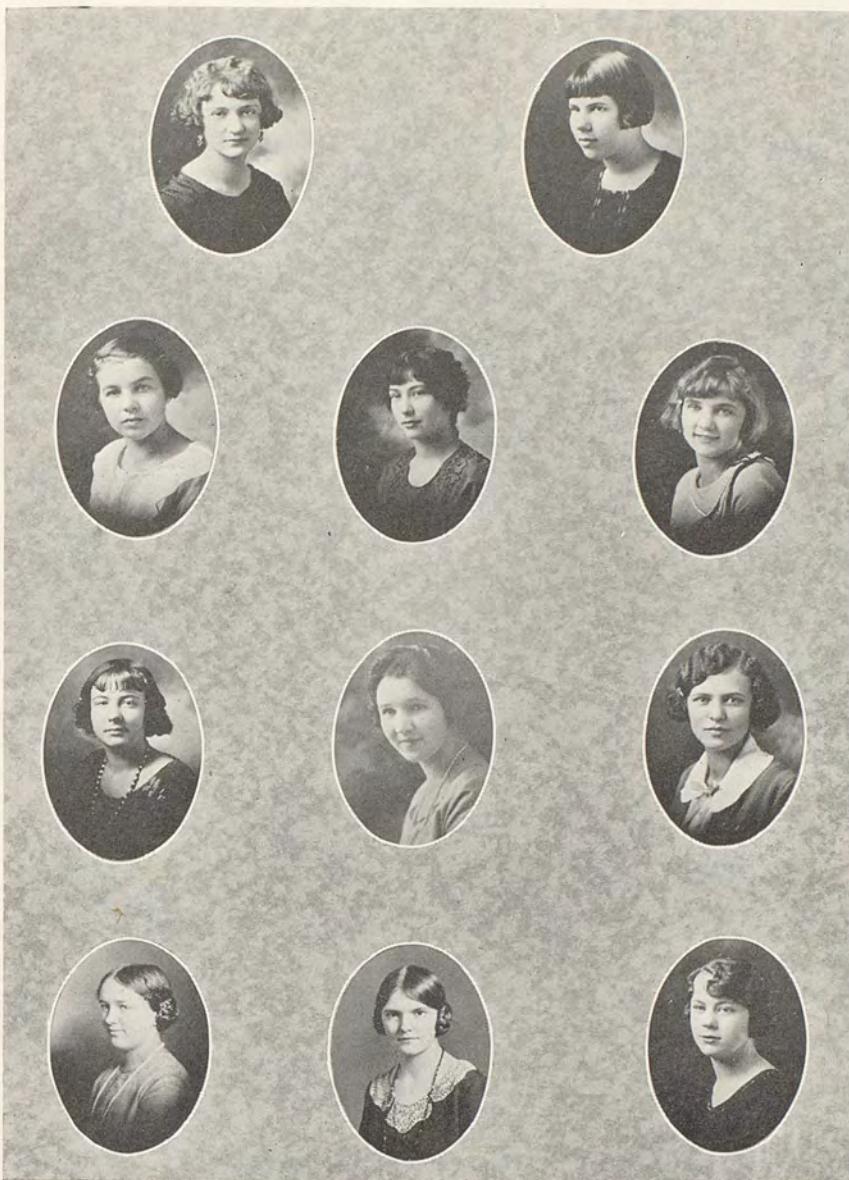

Ayita Campfire has increased in numbers, strength and spirit during the past year. We are now composed of nineteen sincere, earnest girls and a much loved guardian. We are very proud to tell all the students of Wa-Hi just what we have accomplished during the past year which has been a successful one indeed.

Our ceremonials have been beautiful and inspiring. At each ceremonial, rank has been given to one or more girls and honor beads awarded which shows how hard we have all been working. Our gowns have been beautifully decorated which adds beauty to the ceremony around the fire.

In addition to all these activities our social times are in no wise neglected. During the year we entertained and were entertained by Miss Gardner's Campfire at enjoyable dances. Then we have had no end of parties, masquerades and hikes. We especially enjoyed the Mother and Daughter banquet put on by all city campfires after the Seattle Conference.

Then there was that wonderful Seattle conference in which were two of Ayita's girls. The girls earned money to send these two delegates and felt well paid when they returned and brought with them some of that Campfire spirit that is so well liked among the girls. Wa-Hi has a right to expect great things from Ayita and we're determined not to disappoint the school.

The Klahanee Campfire started off in September by voting in some new members.

The club has tried its best to encourage scholarship and a good Wa-Hi spirit among the girls of the club.

We started our social work by having a ceremonial at the home of Evelyn Meyer where the new members were initiated.

January the 4th, we attended a dance given by the Ayita Campfire at Frances Miller's. In return we had an informal dance in honor of the Ayita Campfire at the home of Dorothy Ferrell on February 8th. On March the 15th, the girls attended a St. Patrick's party given by the Waukeenah Campfire at Nita Lamb's home.

We have also tried to do some good work. Christmas we fixed a box of food and toys and took it to a poor family. We have earned considerable money on several cake sales that we have conducted during the year.

Easter vacation we went to Kooskooskie Park and spent a few days camping. The girls had a wonderful time even though it was a little cold. They spent most of their time seeing how much fun they could have and how much mischief they could do. The Waukeenah Campfire joined us in our fun. As our guardians were unable to chaperone us, Mrs. Keeney and Mrs. Ferrell took upon themselves the duties of chaperoning us.

Although the Waukeenah Campfire is a comparatively new organization, it has been active during the past year. Regular meetings have been held and social functions have been successfully carried on. Waukeenah Campfire girls have been steadily advancing their standing until now, they rank with the leading girl's organizations of the school.

The first ceremonial was held at the home of the guardian, Miss Hornibrook. Even though this was the first ceremonial it was beautiful and impressive. We girls felt, for the first time, the real value of Campfires. Every member realized how much it means to carry out the purpose of the organization.

During the latter part of December the members were delightfully entertained by Helen Lofthus.

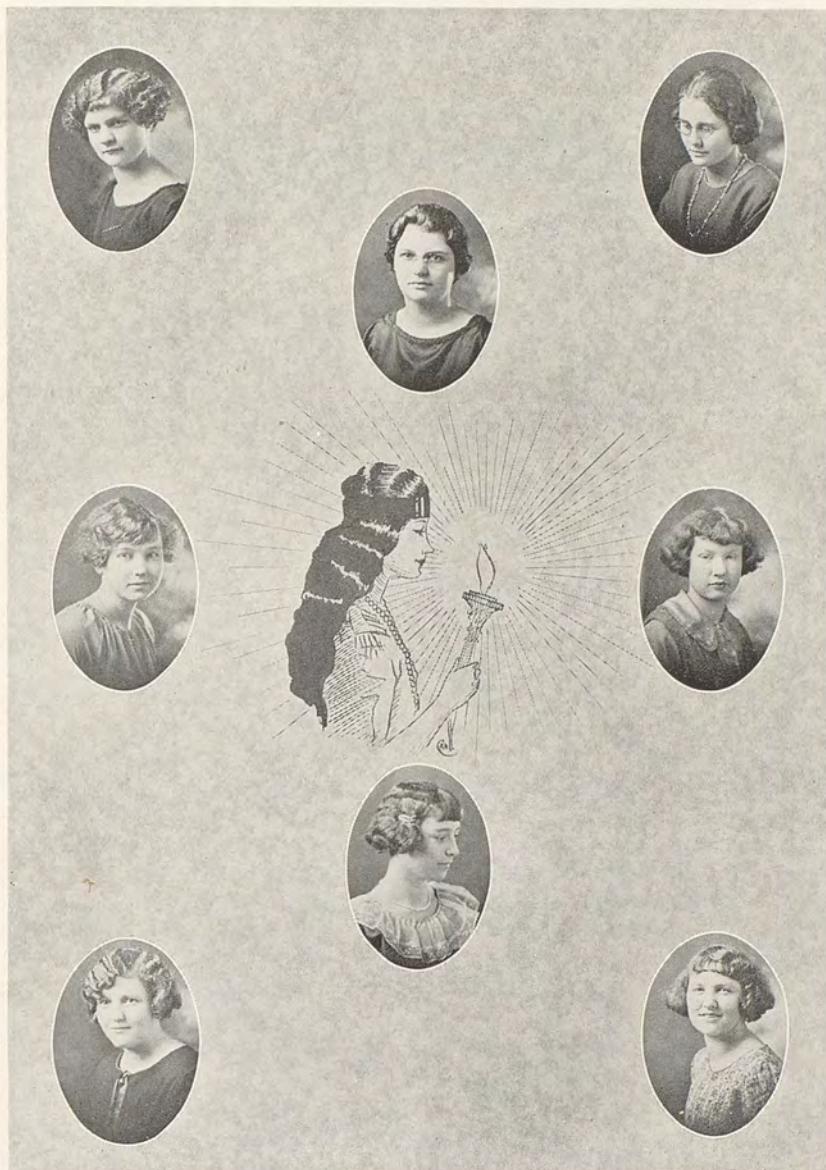

Perhaps the largest social event undertaken by the Waukeenah Campfire was a St. Patrick's dance which was given in honor of the Klahanee Campfire Girls. Attractive decorations and delicate refreshments combined with pretty programs and good music caused the evening to be very enjoyable.

At Christmas time, the Waukeenah Campfire helped the poor in many ways.

During spring vacation the girls camped at Kooskooskie.

Waukeenah Campfire has upheld Wa-Hi standards. It has supported student government. In the future this group of girls will strive to advance.

At the beginning of the year a group of fifteen girls organized a new Campfire. They chose the name of "Nissaki" which means "at the foot of the mountain." The name chosen by a Campfire symbolizes the desire of that group; the thing for which they wish to strive. What more appropriate name could be found for a beginning group of Campfire Girls?

It is the desire of the Nissaki Camp to approach the summit of the mountains unfalteringly and to use as stepping stones to this pinnacle the seven points of the Campfire law.

"Seek Beauty"—one of the most absorbing duties imaginable. A true Campfire Girl says:—"I try to find the beautiful in life and where it is not I create beauty." During the many out-of-door activities of a group, Campfire Girls are observing the beauty and the poetry of nature and its creations. Can a follower of this law help becoming nobler and finer herself?

The task of "Giving Service" is a most difficult one to perform. It requires infinite tact, unselfishness and ingenuity, but once accomplished it is ever a source of keen joy to the giver, to know that she has made some one see more clearly the beauty of living.

A very adequate law to apply to high school girls is "To Pursue Knowledge." After all that is what we are going to school for, and even though our school duties are irksome at times, we may apply the first law of—seeking beauty in all things—and thinking of this surely our tasks will seem lighter.

"Be Trustworthy" sounds like the enjoining of a stern command, but they are two words that should be considered carefully in all our thinking and acting. The noblest foundation for a true woman is a firm foundation of absolute truths.

These laws were accepted by the Nissaki Camp and the girls were initiated by the Tillicum Camp at the home of Leah Lester.

Besides the usual activities of a Campfire group the Nissaki girls have enjoyed several parties. The latest event was a Saint Patrick's tea held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Neal on Otis street, at which our mothers were the honor guests.

This year the French Club has been entirely reorganized by the aid of our faculty advisor, Mlle. Luccock. The club, though small, is larger than it was last year. The fact that we are not as large as some of the other clubs does not mean that we are not one of the peppiest clubs in Wa-Hi. This year's club has improved so much over the one of last year that there is no comparison. We are very proud of what we have accomplished for the good standing of the French Club. We have had regular business meetings every second and fourth Tuesday in the month. After the business meetings we were entertained by various members of the club. Two plays that were given were "Maitre Pathelin" arranged from the old French Farce by that name and "Dans L'acencuer" taken from "Fifteen French Plays." The educational requirement was fulfilled by talks on the origin of the French language by Mlle. Luccock.

Our first social meeting was held at the home of Frances Drake. After all business was transacted, refreshments were served. The remaining time was spent in singing French songs and telling stories.

Two dances have been given this year, and a third is being planned. The first was given on December the eighth, at Cecil Vollendorff's home.

The second was held at the home of Charles Baker on March eighth. They were both a complete success and a credit to the club.

We, the French Club of 1924, owe our success to the incessant work of our officers and to our faculty advisor.

During the past year the Spanish Club has progressed slowly but surely. Well planned social meetings consisting of dancing, games and special programs have been held at the homes of the members. Each semester one dance has been given which was typically Spanish in atmosphere. The social functions have given impetus to the club's progress.

The educational meetings have had several novel features, such as the singing of Spanish songs; the presentations of brief Spanish comedies; Spanish folk dancing; and exhibitions of articles and pictures from the Spanish speaking countries.

The presentation of the Spanish comedies proved very successful. The three plays and the characters are as follows:

"LA BROMA"

Luis Aguilar .....	Lyman Lynn
Antonio .....	Jack Moore
Adela .....	Virginia Hundley
Berta .....	Bertha Gluck

"EL DOBLE ROBO"

Teresa .....	Christine Roedel
Elisa .....	Wilda McKinney
Pedro .....	Frederick Schlee

"EL JOVEN DOCTOR INJORTUNADO"

Doctor .....	Albert Raugust
El Senor .....	Dawson Funk
La Señorita .....	Alice Flint

The Spanish Club has provided funds for a subscription to a Spanish newspaper, which is available to all students, in the school library.

The organization has taken a firm hold in the school and looks toward future prosperity.

The Classical Club was founded with the intent to create a bond of unity and mutual interest between the members of the various Latin classes at Wa-Hi. With this aim in view, the members of the club have put forth the utmost effort towards the upbuilding of the organization.

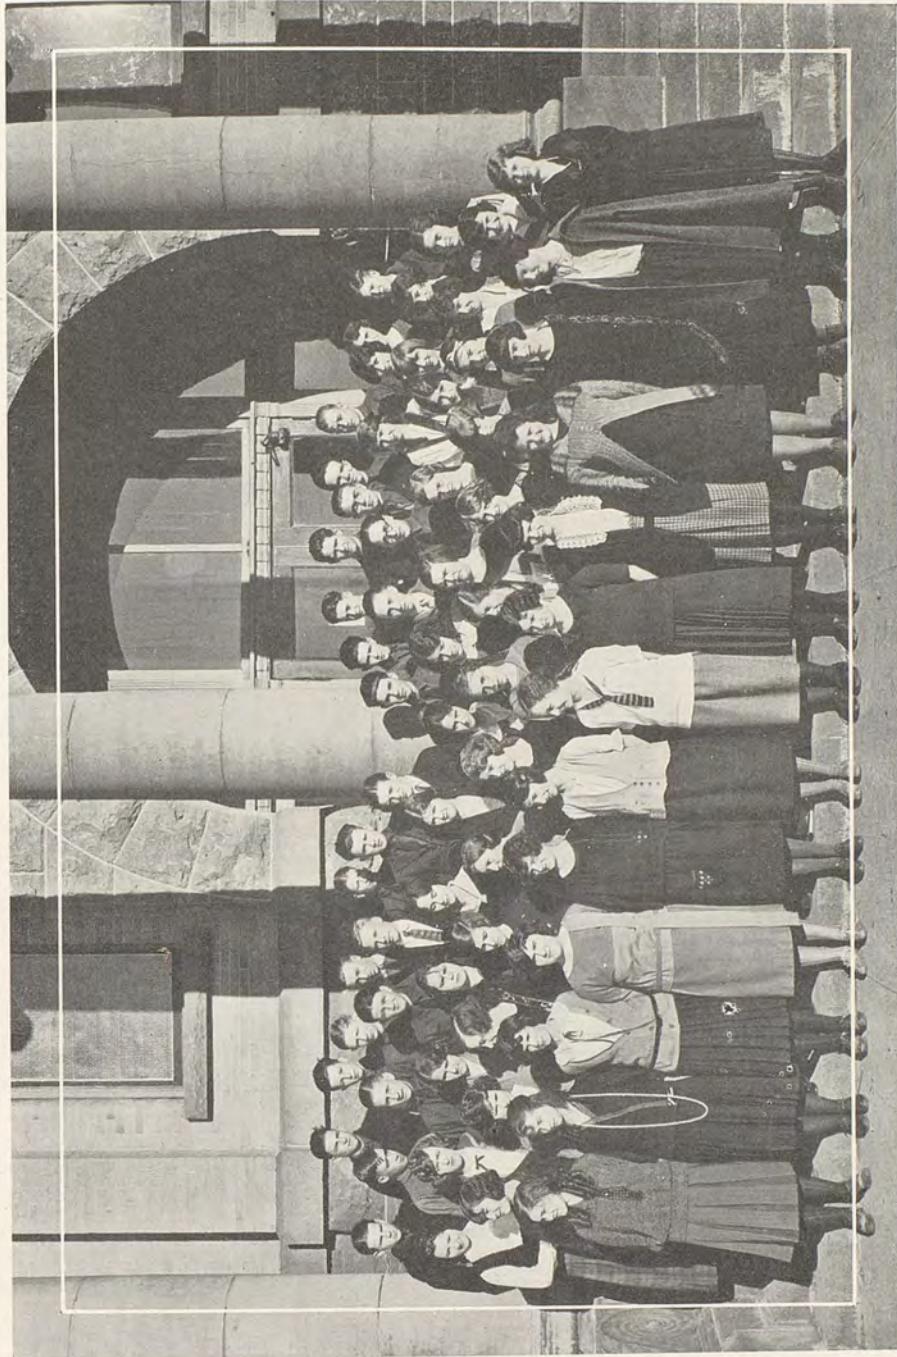

The year 1923-1924 began inauspiciously for the Classical Club, as its advisor and friend, Miss McIntyre, was absent.

However, Miss Wynn entered into its doings with such good will and interest that the club awoke to new life and soon was enjoying meetings that were both instructive and delightful. It became the custom to hold some of the meetings at the homes of the different members which added zest and interest.

In carrying out the routine of the Club, it was found that a constitution was an absolute necessity if the body was to continue as a definite factor in the school; for, while a set of rules had existed prior to this time, there were no hard and fast regulations governing the fashion in which the association was to function. Hence, a constitution covering all phases of the Classical Club's activities was drawn, approved, passed and conscientiously supported by the club.

To raise the scholarship standard, a grade average of eighty per cent in four subjects has become a requirement for all club members, and by this regulation, the Classical Club has pledged itself to raise and uphold the highest standards of Walla Walla High School.

The purpose of the O. G. A. Club was to aim for "Better Shorthand work." At our educational meetings, shorthand poems and articles were read. Current commercial topics were given and discussed. Since the O. G. A. Club is a national organization the Wa-Hi members voted to write shorthand letters to other members. These letters were read at our meetings before they were sent. Many interesting letters were received from all parts of the United States. Parliamentary law was taken up and practiced.

During the month of October a Hallowe'en party was given at the home of Ruth Richmond. Everybody came masked in striking costumes. Many clever games were planned in which every one took part. At the close of the evening cider and doughnuts were served and all departed feeling they had spent a pleasant evening.

On March 26th a dancing party was given at the home of Dorothy Coyle, who lives a few miles west of town. Cars were furnished by different members and a good time was enjoyed by every one.

Thursday, April 13, the O. G. A. Club presented two one-act comedies in the High School Auditorium. A cordial invitation was extended to all the students in the Commercial Department. The first play, "Overtime" was directed by Miss Helen John and the second play, "And the Lamp Went Out" was sponsored by Miss Emma Alber. These plays displayed some talent on the part of the members in the organization.

The Aa Ca Wa Ya Club, has for the past year tried very hard to uphold its club purpose:—Sincere Friendship, Willing Service, Personal Development, Christian Leadership.

Its forty members have been active in Y. W. C. A. work; in aiding the grade school Girl Reserves and in helping poor families of the city. Our most important work has been with the grade school clubs, in helping them to organize; to give programs; and to have good times together.

Early in the spring we started to raise the money to send two delegates to Seabeck, one from the grade schools and one from the Aa Ca Wa Ya group. The work the girls did in raising money showed that every member was indeed loyal to the club.

Our eventful year has not been without it's social side. We had a Hallowe'en party at the "Y" rooms October the twenty-seventh, where many spooky things happened to the girls present. A Christmas party just before the holiday vacation at the home of one of the girls gave us our first real holiday "feeling." Our crowning social event of the year was the dance given at the Parish house February the second. About thirty couples enjoyed dancing. Refreshments and favors were part of the evening's entertainment.

Nearly all of the spring meetings which have been social as well as business have been held at the home of our president Helen Connell.

Many of the girls are looking forward to the summer at Seabeck. When they return, their ideas and plans will help make the Aa Ca Wa Ya of next year as successful as it was this year.

The Girls' Council this year has sponsored several activities of which it is justly proud.

At Christmas time the Girls Council were more than happy to prepare a box of food and toys for a poor family of six members. Just after Christmas when the Freshman B. girls were entering Wa-Hi the council reorganized the Big Sister movement, which had not been used for two years. In March an assembly was called to choose a girl to send to the Seattle Conference, and to decide how to get her there after she was chosen. Each girl of the student body promised to give ten cents to send our representative, Maxine Hendrick. By a special request of the chairman of the conference Maxine will speak about dress reform.

The Girls' Council of '23 has made a sincere, earnest appeal to the girls as a whole to make them realize the benefits of dress reform and to get into the spirit of the movement. Their attitude has been to give the sentence that would help each girl to be true to herself and to her fellow students. That this end has been gained is indeed shown by the wonderful response of the girls to the council.

Although some have declared that this year's Judicial Board is inefficient, it would be hard to find a group of people who have worked harder or more earnestly in the interest of justice and for the upholding of Student Government in old Wa-Hi. The charges of inefficiency may be well grounded if the length of the judicial board meetings are taken as a basis for criticism. This however may be answered by the fact that the board this year has ever striven to administer justice in all cases presented to it. It has rendered its decision entirely from the evidence of eye witnesses and has always sought to deal fairly with all cases. In regard to the enforcement of sentences, this branch of the judicial activities as a whole has been carried out very successfully. Owing to the efforts of the very efficient secretary these sentences for the most part, have been enforced to the letter. However prisoners occasionally escape even from our institution out on the hill, just so a few penalties slip by the sharp eyes of the board.

Taking it all around, Student Government has had a very successful year in Wa-Hi. The board is very well pleased with the showing made by the Freshman and Sophomore classes, especially those Freshmen who entered the first semester. These students seem to realize more than most upperclassmen, the importance of Student Government. Moreover they realize that the burden of the upholding of Student Government will in a few years fall upon them.

The number of cases brought before the board following our wonderful Student Government assembly in March showed that the students in general had awakened from their sleep of previous months and had taken an earnest, conscientious attitude toward Student Government. Let us hope that they maintain this attitude through the coming years and direct their best efforts toward the firm establishment of Student Self-Government in Walla Walla High School.

The newest organization in Wa-Hi is the National Honor Society. As the name indicates it is a national society organized for the purpose of giving greater honor to those students who serve Wa-Hi by maintaining high standards of scholarship. In addition the Club is intended to serve as a reward for those students who besides maintaining a high scholastic average excel in the qualities of leadership, service and character. The Wa-Hi chapter was organized with thirteen Seniors as charter members; and though these students were not chosen until January and the actual organization of the Society followed some time later, the Club has accomplished a great deal toward making itself a permanent body representing this National Society in Wa-Hi.

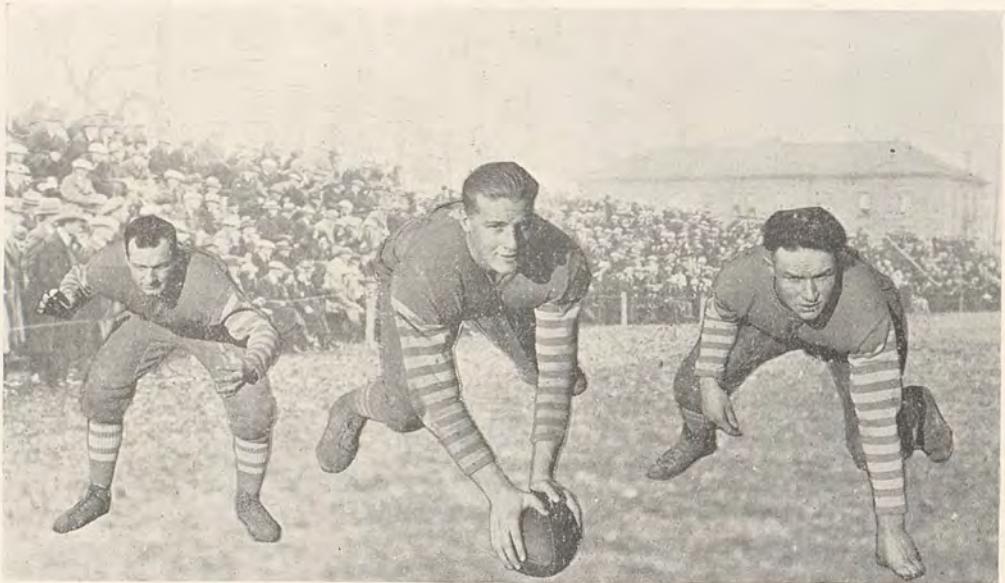

This society seeks to do in High Schools what Phi Beta Kappa does in colleges; that is to form a definite reward for superior scholarship. There has been a need for a society of this kind in our high school for a long time and it is hoped that this chapter will be a great influence toward the improvement of scholastic standing of the students in Wa-Hi.

SUMMARY

Wa-Hi has finished a season that has been one of the best in years. We played eight games, winning six and losing two. Because of its last year's record and their record up till the Lewis & Clark game, the team was invited to go back to Toledo, Ohio, and play a game. When Lewis & Clark defeated us, the team decided to let them go and defend the Western Title. They were defeated in Toledo.

The last game of the season was the Thanksgiving Day game which was played with Yakima. This was probably the hardest fought game of the season. Our team seemed to have the edge on them but we couldn't seem to score. Yakima won by a field goal at the very last of the game. Coach Zimmerman showed his sportsmanship all through the season. When the boys were all packed and ready to make the trip he asked Toledo to have Lewis & Clark take our place.

A brief review of the season shows that Wa-Hi was a strong team. The following games were especially interesting:

WA-HI 24—PENDLETON 6

Pendleton started the game by throwing a scare into the Wa-Hi supporters. They carried the ball through Wa-Hi's line at will, going to our twenty yard line. Pendleton attempted a drop kick which fell short. Christerson placed the ball on our 10 yard line on a thirty yard run after a criss-cross play. They failed to make yardage and we were given the ball. Rice punted out of danger and a Pendleton player fumbled it. Kidwell recovered it. Then after several first downs for Walla Walla, Coplen carried the ball over for the first score.

In the second half, Wa-Hi found herself and made three more touchdowns. In the last minute or two of play, Pendleton made its only score when Wa-Hi's line failed to hold.

WA-HI 18—NORTH CENTRAL 7

Wa-Hi's first really hard football game of the season was played with North Central in Spokane.

After the kick-off, Wa-Hi started charging down the field with irresistible force and within the first four minutes carried the ball over for a touchdown. After this unpleasant shock, the North Central boys put more fight into the game and made ten first downs to Wa-Hi's twelve.

In the second quarter occurred one of those lucky breaks which come to every team once in a while. Tethrow blocked a punt back of the North Central goal line and scored six more points for the blue and white.

North Central made their only score in the second half when, after several spectacular plays, Hanley went around the right end for a touchdown. McGrath converted the try for goal into one more point. The Wa-Hi men made their third touchdown by a series of line bucks and plunges which tore right through the famous North Central line.

In the last few minutes of the game, North Central seriously threatened our goal line but lost the ball just before the final whistle.

WA-HI 0—LEWIS AND CLARK 21

Wa-Hi suffered her first defeat at the hands of her old enemy, Lewis and Clark. The loss was heartbreaking to our "Blue Devils" for it meant the loss of the trip to Toledo to defend the West's Title.

During the first half, the Spokane team crossed our goal twice kicking goal each time. The half ended 14 to 0. In the third quarter L. & C. managed to make their third touchdown. During the final minutes of play our fellows recovered a little and began a fight that started too late. The game ending with a score of 21 to 0.

WA-HI 87—HEPPNER 0

The game scheduled with Heppner on November 24th might be more properly called a track meet as Wa-Hi made thirteen touchdowns without hardly ever letting the ball get out of its possession. Heppner had one chance only in which to score and that was in the last quarter when their team carried the ball to Wa-Hi's eight yard line but lost it in a fumble. Out of thirteen attempts to kick goal Holmgren made nine. A number of "scrubs" were used during this game to give them an opportunity to make their letter.

WA-HI 0—YAKIMA 3

Playing almost equally well, Yakima and Wa-Hi battled fiercely for Thanksgiving Day honors but Yakima had all the luck and won the game by three points.

The first half was scoreless with both teams see-sawing back and forth down the field. Wa-Hi made more yardage and first downs than Yakima but lacked the punch necessary to score.

In the second half Yakima made a field goal which put them in the lead. Wa-Hi then fought its way down the field, foot by foot until it was fairly near the Yakima goal. Holmgren on the fourth down attempted a field goal which fell short a few inches and Wa-Hi lost its last chance to score.

With the yardage and first down records showing Wa-Hi overwhelmingly superior, the game by all rights should have been Wa-Hi's but hard luck gave the game to its opponent.

The Team

Five regulars, Herbert Truant, Dale Cherry, Walfred Holmgren, Henry Vincent, and Frank Averill played in every game during the season. The "Blue Devils," our second team composed of: Remmert Heater, Claud Whetzel, Lynn Croxdale, Dick Timmons and Bob Timmons got into a great number of the games during the season and also played several games themselves. They beat Waitsburg 42 to 7 and Touchet 29 to 9. In these games Holland, Brumblay, Farrens and Richardson also played.

In the district tournament all five of our players were given places. At Seattle, Cherry and Averill made the All-State First Team and Vincent and Holmgren made the second team.

Special credit must go to our coach Clarence A. Zimmerman. He is the man who is responsible for all of the fame and recognition earned by the team this season. We hope he remains with us and develops more championship teams.

Southeast Washington District Tournament

This tournament was held to decide which two teams would represent this section of Washington at the State Tournament at Seattle. Four teams participated: Walla Walla, Albion, Anatone, and Ritzville. This tournament proved to be a walk-away for Wa-Hi. We beat Albion 32 to 9; Ritzville 63 to 12; and Anatone 37 to 13. These victories gave us the right to participate in the State Tournament. Albion also went from this district, having also won from Anatone and Ritzville.

The State Tournament

The State Champions certainly lived up to their reputation, winning four games straight by large scores. This made Wa-Hi State Champions for the second time in succession. "Rah, rah, for old Wa-Hi."

Our first game was with Napavine. We easily defeated them 34 to 13. The score at the end of the first half was 24 to 11 so Coach Zimmerman sent in the Blue Devils for the second half. They made ten points and held Napavine to one basket.

We had a score in the second game when Snoqualmie had us beaten 13 to 12 at the end of the half. Wa-Hi came back strong during the second half and took the game 36 to 19.

The third game was the same old story to Lewis and Clark. This was the fourth time we defeated them. In this game also, the Blue Devils finished the game after the first string had got it well in hand.

The final game proved no trouble at all. Lynden was defeated 37 to 14. The first team played the full time and certainly showed their real calibre. Result: State Championship.

The National Tournament

By virtue of its victories over Washington's best teams we were again extended an invitation to participate in the Sixth Annual National Inter-scholastic Basketball Tournament given by the University of Chicago. For a long time the team didn't know whether they would be able to go but finally after a benefit baseball and basketball game, donations from business men, and alumni, and from the student body fund enough money was raised to make the trip.

Our first game was with Charlottesville, Virginia. The team played a wonderful game. They couldn't miss the basket and their passes were well timed. At the end of the first half the score was 22 to 11 in our favor. The game ended with Wa-Hi hooking on to the large end of a 51 to 15 score. This was the largest score made by any team in the first round of the tournament.

The second game was against Madison, South Dakota. This game went the way of the first; Wa-Hi winning 57 to 19. At the end of this game Wa-Hi was picked as one of the teams to go the limit in the tournament.

We drew Northeastern High of Detroit, Michigan, for the third game. Before the game bets ranged from 100 to 1 down to even money that we would win. The game started with all the luck going to our opponents. They hit the inside of the hoop every time. Wa-Hi missed pot shots time after time. To get to the sad part quickly we were beaten by a score of 43 to 15. Our only explanation was that this was an "off" night for our team and a decidedly "on" night for the other team.

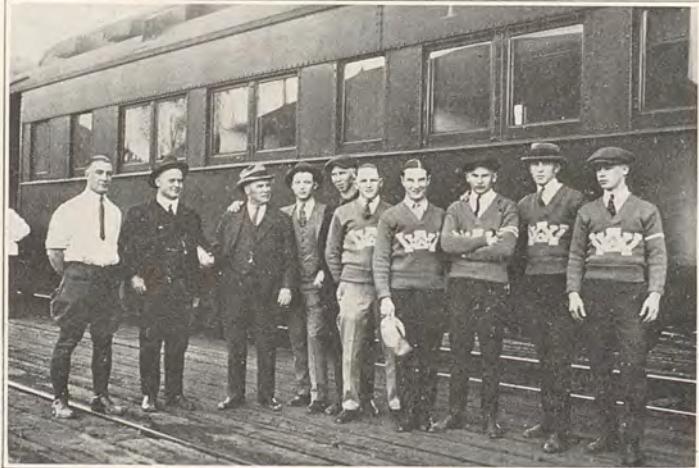

It was notable that in all our games Wa-Hi was decidedly the favorite with the crowds. "Meeker" Timmons especially drawing their acclaim.

Thus ended the most successful season yet. Only one defeat in 27 games and that defeat in the third round of the National Tournament.

Review of the Season

This year has seen the greatest basketball team Wa-Hi has ever had in action. It went through the ordinary schedule and two tournaments undefeated. This is even better than the record of the team last year. All of the State Championship team were back with the exception of Omer Kent whose place was taken by the lanky Wal-fred Holmgren. With these players, some playing their second year and some their third year, on the first team a team equal to some college teams was developed.

Lewis and Clark may be able to defeat us in football but they will have nothing to say now. After playing four games against them we had a total of 130 points to their 52 points. We also took the W. S. C. Freshman team down the line in two fast games. The Dalles, Eastern Oregon Champions were trimmed in two games with total scores of 60 to 20. Our friends from Milton and likewise from Moscow were each beaten in two games apiece. In all, during the regular schedule season, we scored 983 points to our opponents' 371 points.

OFF TO CHICAGO

TRACK

To start at the beginning of the season, Wa-Hi's prospects were not very bright. Ward Miller, star track man of last season was out of school because of an injury to his shoulder received during football season. Other members of the track team had graduated. The only member of the team left was Spencer Coplen. This season Coach David Marr issued the call for track men and about thirty-five turned out. This number diminished to about fifteen as the season advanced. The first track meet was held April 18th, with Touchet High School. This was a practice meet to determine how the boys would do in competition. Touchet had strong distance runners but their entries and other events were not up to ours. The end of the meet found the score 80-35 in our favor. In this meet Coplen piled up a score of 24 points, making him high point man. Meckleson was second with 20 points. Brumblay, third with 15 points. Other point gatherers were Holland, Bogle, Snyder, Young and Garrett.

On April 25, a meet was held between the Seniors and the rest of the classes. The result of this meet found the lower classes in possession of 62 points and the Seniors 52. At this meet, Coplen, a Junior, took first place with 39 points, Brumblay 19 points, and Snyder 15 points. Other members of the team that showed up well were Meckleson, Holland, Bogle, Lynn, Davidson, Holmgren, Thompson and Garrett.

Other meets this season will be a county meet here on May 3, district meet at Ritzville on May 10, the state meet at Pullman on May 17.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Six inter-class basketball games have been played, on Tuesday and Thursday nights, after school, scores having been added to determine the ranking of the teams.

In the first game between the Seniors and the Juniors, the Seniors won with a score of 30-14.

Second game—Sophomores vs. Freshmen—	Sophomores won .....	21-20
Third Game—Seniors vs. Sophomores—	Seniors won .....	34- 8
Fourth game—Juniors vs. Freshmen—	Juniors won .....	11-10
Fifth game—Seniors vs. Freshmen—	Seniors won .....	37-15
Sixth game—Juniors vs. Sophomores—	Tie Score .....	14-14

Interest ran particularly high in the Junior-Sophomore game which ended in a tie. According to this year's ruling a tie is not played off.

In the final game between the Juniors and Freshmen, much was at stake. The Senior team was far in the lead with 101 points. Next came the Sophomores with 43, Freshmen third with 35, and Juniors fourth with 28. The last game was to decide the second place team. At the end the score stood 11-10 in favor of the Juniors, but the higher score of the Freshmen ranked them second with one point to the good over the Sophomores.

This year much more interest has been shown in girls' basketball than was displayed last year. The material is better, there are fewer stars, and more generally good players. The team work of the Seniors is particularly good, and the basket shooting of Ruth Burtch and Catherine Miller is nothing short of phenomenal. The Freshman team bids fair to develop into the same sort of a team as the present Senior team which has held the championship for three years.

Following is a list of players on each team:

SENIORS:—

Velma Hancock, Running Center
Iris Hoon, Forward
Gwendolyn Ramsuer, Forward (Captain)
Annabel Maxfield, Guard
Frances Burroughs, Guard

The mythical all star team consists of the following girls: Forwards—Catherine Miller, Ruth Burtch, Iris Hoon. Guards—Kathryn Maple, Elizabeth Kincheloe, Annabel Maxfield. Centers—Clara Emigh and Rita Draper. Running Center—Alice Flint.

Nine letters are granted each year to the nine best players of all the girls turning out. The above nine are the winners of the "W W." letters. They are also eligible to the "Athletae" the girls' newly organized honorary athletic society.

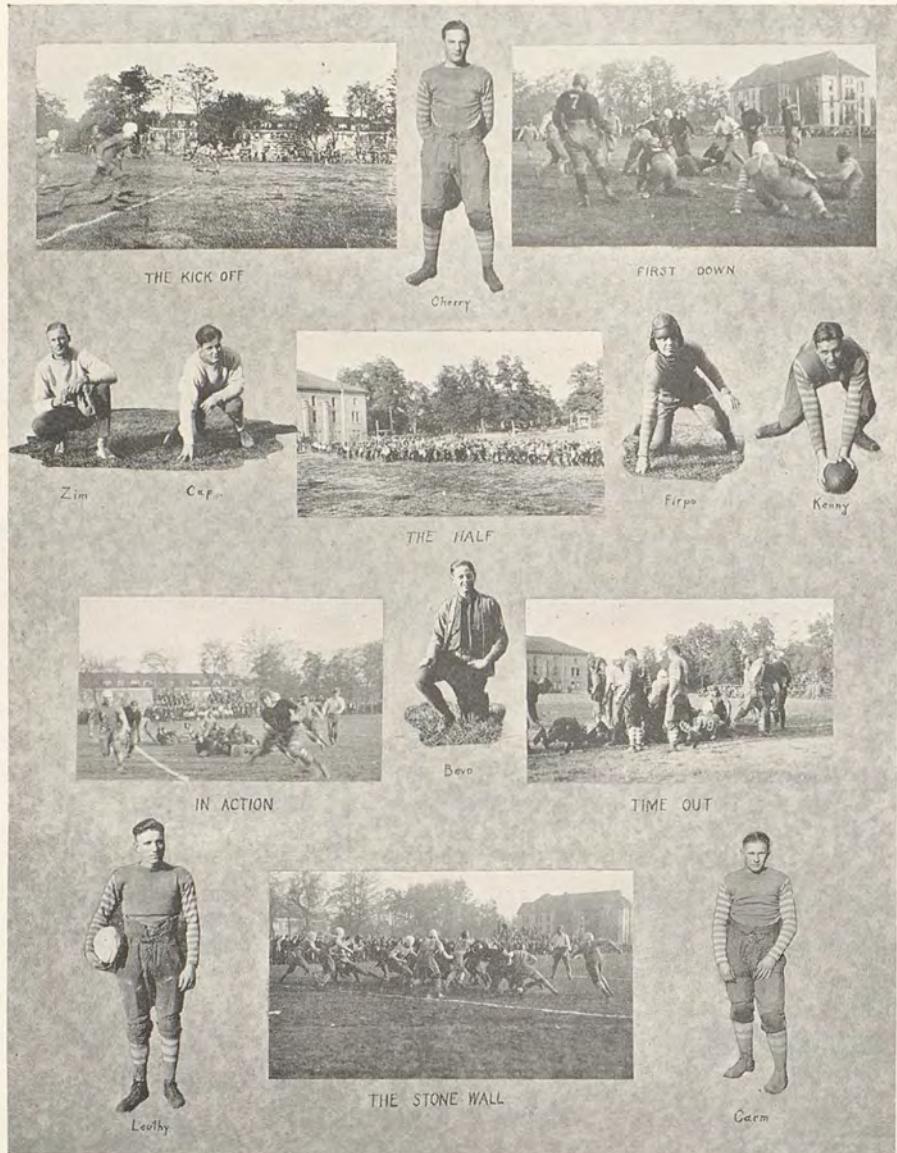

Miss Craig of the high school faculty refereed the games.

LETTERS IN GIRLS' ATHLETICS

That the girls have taken an added interest in personal efficiency this year is certainly manifested by the number of letters won. Perhaps this is due to the fact that gym work was optional with the girls in this year's session. Nine letters were won in basketball and three in tennis. Owing to the fact that tennis has been numbered among the Wa-Hi athletics for only two years the girls do not yet have courts. However, they hope to have them before long. Although a very marked amount of interest was shown in indoor baseball, no letters were won.

Perhaps one of the greatest changes in girls' athletics this year was the granting of letters for all-around personal efficiency. The capability of making 40 trips across the traveling rings, and a constant participation in any of the major sports which consist of swimming, hiking, horseback riding, skating, and bicycling, entitles a girl to one of these letters.

"Back to the Farm"

At eight o'clock on the evening of March seventh in the high school auditorium, the Agricultural Club presented "Back to the Farm". This was the "Hay Seeds" first attempt at dramatics. From the size of the crowd that witnessed the production, it must have been a success.

The play "Back to the Farm" which was a country life play with a message, had a laugh in every line. Merton Merrill, the country boy who wanted to learn scientific farming and did learn it, was a living contrast to his father and Mr. Allen who were farmers of the old school. Mr. Allen with his signs and weather forecasts, was good, even if his signs didn't always bring his rain. Gus Anderson, the hired man, created many a laugh. His better half, Hulda, was another comic feature. Rose Mead, the school teacher, was the one who captured the prize.

This play was coached by Mrs. Hazel Teall of the Hazel Teall School of Expression.

The Campfire Play

The third annual Campfire Christmas play was given in the high school auditorium December the 14th. The play chosen, an adaptation of "The American Citizen," was more difficult to present than most plays given by high school students because of the subtlety of its humor, the number of persons in the cast, and the demands of the stage setting. But all the parts were presented with great credit to the coach, Mrs. Teall, and the costumes and stage setting were unusually beautiful for an amateur performance. The Italian garden with its blue sky background, marble balustrades, white pillars, and tall palms, and its gaily dressed peasants was a contrast to the last scene, a poor lodging in London, showing, through an open window, the light from a beautiful stained glass cathedral window shining through falling snow.

Following this play, a short Christmas pageant containing about forty girls was given. The coloring, grouping, costuming and striking lighting effects made such a beautiful picture that the audience applauded enthusiastically when the curtain rose.

Although costumes were provided for seventy persons, stage properties purchased, and a whole stage set repainted, the proceeds of the play added a very substantial amount to the Camp Fire treasury.

El Adrea-Gimmel Teth Entertainment

On Friday evening, April twenty-first, 1924, the El Adrea and Gimmel Teth Societies put on some very clever stunts which were in the nature of a "Minuet." A Sailor Skit, a graceful Spanish Dancer, a Follies Girl, a regular Peck's Bad Boy and a demure old-fashioned girl who charmingly sang "Alice Blue Gown." Then the motion picture, "Silas Marner" was shown. Mr. Tilley's orchestra furnished some delightful music during the intermissions. Everyone pronounced the entire program a real success.

The Senior Play

The class of '24 presented, on May 16, a comedy, entitled "His Majesty Bunker Bean," which was indeed an uncommon play. The sweet mannerism of the heroine and the startling things she did kept the audience tense throughout the evening. The weird ominous atmosphere of Act two cannot often be excelled, even in professional drama. One of the unique features of the play was the mummy. Another feature of the play was that it was staged by the liveliest cast of amateurs that has ever been on the Wa-Hi platform, and we of the lower classes should certainly congratulate them upon their splendid success.

Oratory

The studious citizens of Wa-Hi had two excellent opportunities to show the school and the public exactly what they could do in the oratorical line this year. Besides our annual Eh Kah Nam contest, a National Oratorical Contest sponsored by about two hundred and fifty of the big newspapers over the country was staged.

NATIONAL ORATORICAL CONTEST

The National Oratorical Contest, with its series of large and worth while prizes brought a good response from the students. The subject was limited to "The Benefits of the American Constitution" or any sub-titles the student might select. Many students tried in the preliminaries of which the following three were chosen to try out in assembly: Lyman Lynn, Clarence Monroe, Vera Ratcliffe. Clarence Monroe won by a very narrow margin over the other two and secured the right to represent Wa-Hi in the District Semi-finals on April the 4th. In that contest he was placed among those who were to compete the next night for the privilege of representing this district at Spokane in the Zone Semi-finals. The representative from Pasco, however, took first place in that contest, winning the twenty-five dollars which was to pay his expenses to Spokane. In Spokane Bernard Vonderlicht from St. Marys, Idaho, took first place and will go to Los Angeles on May 16, to compete for the trip to Washington, D. C., and the three-thousand five hundred dollars.

All those who tried out learned a great deal and received some very valuable training besides a "Certificate of Merit" from the "Spokesman Review." The winner in each school also received a medal. Altogether it was an excellent contest and we hope those patriotic newspapers will see their way clear to having another one next year.

EH KAH NAM TROPHY

Besides athletics and debate, we have another valuable department in Wa-Hi. Oratory develops the student in two ways: (1) the writing of the oration develops the orator's literary ability, and (2) the delivery of it develops his public speaking ability. Hence, the Eh Kah Nam Oratorical Contest was of interest to everyone in school—both to those people trying out for the cup and to those listening.

On April the 2nd, these five contestants appeared before the students, in an assembly, having worked faithfully to perfect their orations and their delivery to the highest state possible. The speakers, in order and their respective subjects follow:

Helen Buddenhagen .....	"Truth and True Americanism"
Lyman Lynn .....	"The Constitution and Prohibition"
Catherine Bleakney .....	"Woodrow Wilson"
John Hower .....	"Woodrow Wilson"
Reva McLaughlin .....	"Woodrow Wilson"

The contest was close, but John Hower's oration on Woodrow Wilson was so well written and delivered with such genuine feeling that he was accorded first place.

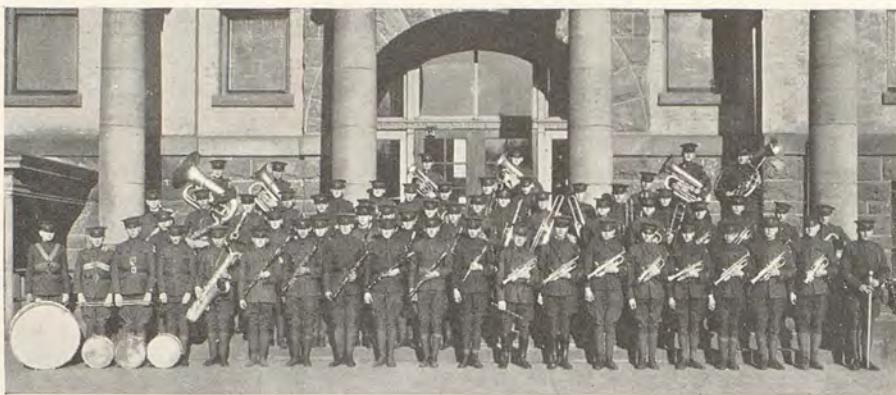

All agree that this was the finest oratorical program Wa-Hi has had, and that all five contestants merit hearty congratulation. Too much praise cannot be given to those who entered the preliminaries. They have gained much valuable experience themselves and their earnestness and enthusiasm made possible the splendid display of oratory which the finals revealed.

The year 1923-24 has been the biggest and most successful season yet experienced by the "Famous Wa-Hi Band."

Under the able direction of Mr. Tilley the band has steadily progressed until the membership has reached 75 active members. This is the largest band in the State of Washington. The band is a part of the R. O. T. C. and is of valuable service to that branch of the school work.

The outstanding feature of the activities of the Wa-Hi band was the furnishing of concert and incidental music, together with all music for the Interpretive Dances for the Pioneer Pageant "How the West Was Won," given by the Whole Walla Walla Community. The band will again be an important factor in the production of this Historical Spectacle.

The band furnished music for all the foot-ball games, at home, also furnished music for the Whitman-Oregon game at Pendleton; appeared in its annual concert in the high school auditorium; and was selected as the official band for the District Convention of Rotary Clubs at Spokane, Washington. While attending this convention the band appeared in concert in both the Lewis and Clark and North Central High Schools; furnished music for parades of Rotarians; appeared in concert at a banquet in the armory and proved to be the most popular organization attending the convention.

The band has rendered service at every public gathering in Walla Walla and has proved to be a community asset, being available at all times for community service.

The Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. band has earned its name, "The Famous Wa-Hi Band" for the excellence of its music, appearance, and service. It is known throughout the Northwest as the "Famous Wa-Hi Band."

Mr. Tilley

Under the able direction of Mr. Hal C. Tilley the Wa-Hi band has again passed through a more than successful year. Mr. Tilley has made it possible for a large number of unskilled musicians to receive the commendation of a United States Army Inspector. The band, through the efforts of Mr. Tilley, has been highly praised by all who have had the pleasure of listening to it.

Mr. Tilley has been responsible for the neat appearance of the band. He has been ever willing to help students in the behalf of music. The Wa-Hi orchestra is also another evidence of his willingness to help the High School.

It is such men as Mr. Tilley who raise the standard of the High School. We are proud to have members of the faculty with such character as his. Mr. Tilley, we appreciate your good deeds for Wa-Hi.

The Boys' Glee Club was organized, for the first time in Wa-Hi, at the beginning of the present school year. Under the direction and instruction of Mr. Marr the Boys' Glee Club has proved to be a popular organization. It has appeared four times in public recitals and once with the band in concert. The Club has been well received at each appearance.

At the beginning there were twenty-four students registered for the Glee Club. After a series of try-outs and rehearsals a few members were eliminated, and the Club was gradually reduced to the present membership of fifteen.

Under the leadership of Mr. Marr the Boys' Glee Club has been a decided success and a welcome addition to Wa-Hi's Musical Organizations.

The members of the Boys' Glee Club have learned a great deal of the methods of singing and of vocalization. Such training is of great value to the student whether he has a good voice or not.

From singing a two part song like "The Harlem Goat," at the beginning of the first semester, the members of the Club have now improved so that they can quite easily sing difficult four part songs like "Pale in the Amber West."

Next year Director Marr is planning big things for the Boys' Glee Club, including a Minstrel Show and Operetta. The Minstrel Show will be a source of real entertainment and enjoyment both to the school and to the members of the Club. It is hoped that next year the enrollment will far exceed the enrollment of this year.

Music is in its infancy in America—and so is the Girls' Glee Club in Wa-Hi. But what is more interesting than watching the development of a real, live, wide-awake, growing child? And the Girls' Glee Club in Wa-Hi is like a real, live, wide-awake child that is developing in many respects. First, it has increased its numbers until it boasts of thirty-five, enthusiastic, girls. These girls have twice entertained the student body with bits of grand opera or songs from some of the standard composers.

Second, the Girls' Glee Club has taken its place among the organizations of the school. Within its own organization it has created, through try-outs among its members, a new line of activity—The Girls' Trio and Glee Club Quartet. These groups are composed of the best voices of the club. They are just beginning a kind of work which, with the assistance of an able instructor, we hope may in a few years, be of real worth to Wa-Hi. The fact that these groups will sing in public frequently, will undoubtedly attract those who really have good voices and who care for that extra experience and training.

Lastly this group has attempted to cultivate a love for good music. It has sung selections from various grand opera such as "Aida" by G. Verdi. "Love's Dream After the Ball," by A. Czibulka. "Sampson and Delilah" by C. St. Saens. "Mandolinata," by E. Paladilhe and a number of old French melodies. With no apologies for its youth the Glee Club invites your interest and support. It will be worth your while in the future to watch it grow.

The Orchestra

The Wa-Hi Orchestra this year has not been as large as in past years. The main object of this organization is to render service to the school.

The Orchestra is composed of ten students selected by Director Tilley to furnish music for school activities.

This Orchestra has proved popular, and has furnished music for entertainments of all kinds given in the high school auditorium, has broadcasted radio concerts and will furnish music for commencement exercises.

The concerts given by the orchestra in assembly this year drew many compliments for these young musicians.

The membership of the Orchestra is as follows:—

H. C. TILLEY, Director—Violin	Floyd Hawkins .....	Trumpet
Betty Osterman ..... Flute	Wade Sims .....	Trumpet
Chas. Fitzpatrick ..... Clarinet	Dan Tilley .....	Trombone
Lewis Lutcher ..... Saxophone	Dick Meath .....	Drums
Ruth Osterman ..... Cello
Bethel Stack ..... Piano

The Pep Band

At the beginning of the present school year ten members of the R. O. T. C. band organized the "Wa-Hi Pep Band."

Under the leadership of Floyd Hawkins this little band proceeded to instil pep into the football and basketball games. It appeared twice in Milton and twice in Spokane to help inspire our football and basketball teams.

In Spokane the papers dubbed them "a handful of drum-beaters and horn-tootlers" who out noised the Spokane rooters.

The Pep Band has lived up to its name.

The members of this peppy organization are:—

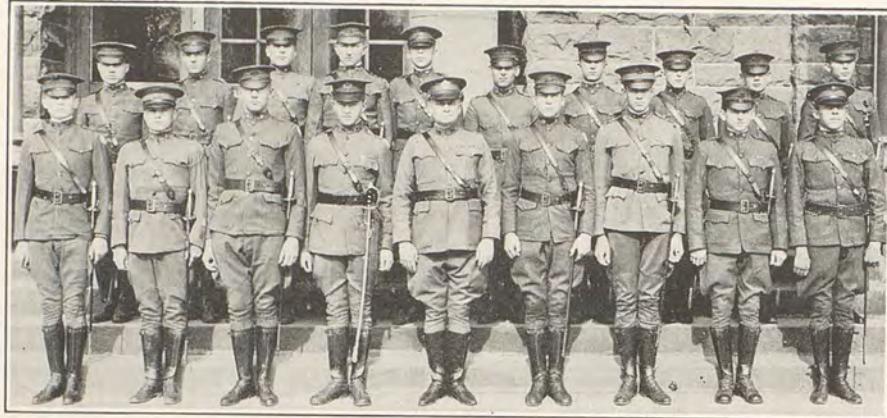

FLOYD HAWKINS, Leader—Trumpet	Dan Tilley .....	Trombone
Bud Leroux ..... Trumpet	Ortho Tighe .....	Trombone
Richard Tompkins ..... Clarinet	Rowland Yeend .....	Horn
Charles Fitzpatrick, Clarinet and Saxophone	Dick Meath .....	Drums

Events of the Year

This year saw another big advance in the standing of the unit among the junior organizations of the Ninth Corps Area. The signal success of this year is due to the able leadership and unceasing vigor which the commandant has exerted.

Probably the most gratifying result of the year's efforts is the higher morale of the unit, not only is this true of the line companies but also of the band.

This year's inspections showed considerable improvement over those of last year. The first inspection came the latter part of Oct., 1923, and was conducted by Major Jordon, the R. O. T. C. Officer of the Ninth Corps Area. The second inspection occurred in April of this year and, as Major Jordan was unable to attend to his official duties, he sent one of his office assistants, Lieutenant Woodward, a most able officer who has a keen appreciation of snap and precision, our two most valued assets. Both inspectors were much impressed by the many additions and improvements to the curriculum, equipment, etc. Of these perhaps the most impressive was the Elementary Tactics Schedule, which covered a subject being taught to advanced cadets. These things coupled with the success of the units' crack rifle team should win a high rating for this organization at the Corps Area headquarters.

More of the members of the unit are taking advantage of the Citizens' Military Training Camps, National Guard and Enlisted Reserve Corps. Six of the cadet officers are awaiting the attainment of majority for the awarding of commissions in the Officer's Reserve Corps.

This year the unit received an agreeable surprise when the Board of Education doubled the Military credit and agreed to purchase military text books for Juniors and Seniors in Military Science. Heretofore only a fourth of a credit has been given for military training and students had to purchase their own "manuals."

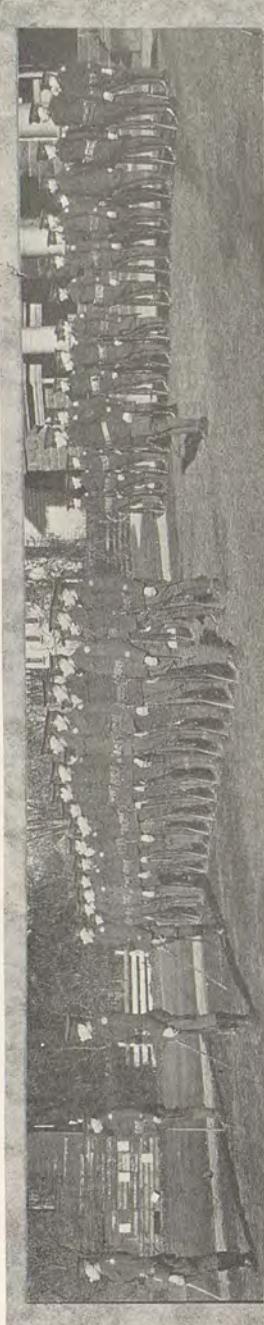

The manner in which the local public attends the activities of the unit is always an indication of the support being accorded the organization.

These indications point toward an ever more successful year in 1925.

Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. Unit Rifle Team

The Walla Walla High School R. O. T. C. rifle team, in the Ninth Corps Area gallery competition held in February, won third place, and missed the highest mark by a fraction of a per cent, of all teams on the Pacific Coast, according to the official report received from headquarters of the Ninth Corps Area at San Francisco. Salt Lake and Ogden scored a fraction over 95 per cent, while the Walla Walla team made a score of 94.68 per cent, according to the official figures.

As the eight states on the Pacific Coast, California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, Utah and Nevada, have won the national championship three years in succession this means that Wa-Hi stands as the third team in the United States, or the world, for marksmanship.

Teams were entered from three groups of institutions as follows: Group 1, Senior Division R. O. T. C., composed of universities and colleges, a total of twenty-two; Group 2, Junior Division R. O. T. C., composed of high schools, a total of thirty-nine; and Group 3, private military academies and other schools, receiving military training under War Department supervision and regulations but not in either division of the R. O. T. C., a total of five. Aggregate number of competing teams in the match, sixty-six.

The scores and percentages made by the first twelve teams in order of standing were as follows: (possible team score, 6,000 points).

Name of Team	Score	Per cent
Salt Lake City East Side H. S. battalion team	5754	95.90
Ogden Senior High School unit team	5713	95.21
Walla Walla High School unit team	5681	94.68
Sacramento High School team	5651	94.21
Oregon Agricultural College team No. 1	5581	90.31
University of Washington team	5464	90.11
University of California team No. 1	5462	90.11
Pomona College team	5444	90.07
Reno High School team No. 1	5385	89.75
Montana State College team No. 1	5373	89.50
California Institute of Technology	5350	89.17
Los Angeles High School unit team	5347	89.11

The score and percentage made by the lowest team in each of the three groups of institutions named were

University of Idaho team No. 2	4279	71.13
Oakland Technical High School unit team	4085	68.08
Mount Tamalpais Military Academy team	4074	67.90

As will be seen, Wa-Hi's team stood third on the list of sixty-six teams competing and came within a hair's breadth of winning not only second, but first place also. Moreover, it is noteworthy that the first four teams in standing were all high school teams and thereby defeated all university, college, and essentially military school teams entered in the shoot.

The individual scores for each stage and position, totals, and percentages, made by the members of the Wa-Hi unit team follow: (Possible individual score, 600 points).

Clarence Greenway, 588, 98.00 per cent; Dale Whiteman, 577, 96.17 per cent; James Elam, 570, 95.00 per cent; Karl Baumeister, 570, 95.00 per cent; Henry Craig, 568, 94.67 per cent; Glen Lane, 567, 94.50 per cent; Edward Hempstead, 565, 94.17 per cent; Judd Kimball, 563, 93.83 per cent; Theodore Wolff, 562, 93.50 per cent; Melvin Jensen, 551, 91.83 per cent; Total, 5681, 94.68 per cent.

As a result of the high standing it made in the Ninth Corps Area competition, the team was selected again this year, as it was last, to enter the National Intercollegiate Gallery Match which was fired between March 15th and April 15th. At this writing (April 25th) the final returns from the match have not been received, but it is believed the team has an excellent chance of winning the national championship. For the team made an aggregate score of 7,820 points out of a possible score of 8,000 points, or an average percentage of 97.75, thus beating all previous records.

GRAND MILITARY TOURNAMENT

The Third Grand Military Tournament of the Reserve Officers Training Corps, Walla Walla High School, was held at Sportsman's Park, on Friday, May 25, 1923. It was attended by a large and most enthusiastic crowd of citizens. The following program was rendered.

PROGRAM

- 1.—Review and inspection of the unit by prominent citizens including Hon. John W. Summers, M. C.; Mayor Ben F. Hill; Col. Paul H. Weyrauch, F. A. O. R. C., U. S. A.; City School Board; and the presidents of the Commercial, Rotary, Ad, and Kiwanis Clubs. Col. Weyrauch acted as reviewing officer.
- 2.—Battalion close order drill by the Wa-Hi Battalion.
- 3.—The Daily Dozen physical series by Companies A and B and rifle physical drill by Company C.
- 4.—Group games and contests by Companies A and B; and competitive wall scaling under fire by selected squad teams from each company for the Lacey Trophy.
- 5.—Competitive company close order drill for the Weyrauch Trophy; and competition platoon extended order drill for the Jones Trophy.
- 6.—(A) Shelter tent pitching contest between Companies A and B. Winning company received honorable mention. (B) First aid competition, open to teams of three men each in the Senior and Junior classes of Company C, officers excepted. Teams consisted of operator, patient and attendant (stretcher bearer).
7. Sham battle between the Blues and the Reds. Companies A and B.
The famous Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. Band furnished the musical numbers and played throughout the performance.

Much more could be said on the subject of the tournament, especially as to the meritorious performance of organizations and individuals participating, prize winners, etc., but space forbids. Suffice it to say that the audience witnessing it manifestly was greatly pleased with it and all the local newspapers gave most glowing accounts of it in their columns. The best send off however was given by Congressman Summers. He said: "This is the best show, military and otherwise, that I have ever witnessed and I heartily approve of the R. O. T. C. as a training component in our system of National defense. It is the most economical and effective form of military training for our citizens ever devised."

PURPOSE

To give the general public an idea of the character of the course of training pursued in a junior unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps and the progress made by the Wa-Hi Unit during the past year.

To increase the efficiency of the Wa-Hi Cadet Corps by stimulating a strong spirit of rivalry in officers and men.

To teach lessons in patriotism and respect for the flag and all that it represents.

To raise a small badly needed fund to defray the incidental expenses of instruction and administration—no money being allotted for this purpose by either the Government or the School Board.

The military tournament of the Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. is now a permanent factor of military life. It is anticipated that the fourth one will be held on or about May 15th and that it will be no less successful than the last one.

The lover, a commonplace Mr.,
 Much elated to think he had Kr.,
 Would have tried it again
 But she cried "Refrain,"
 Lest you raise on my cheek a big Blr.

Teacher:—"Take this sentence:
 Let the cow be taken out of the lot.

What mood?"

Pupil:—"The cow."

* * * *

Nita had a little lamb and every where that Nita went that lamb was sure to go.

Jones, a gloomy individual decided to turn over a new leaf. He went home whistling, kissed his wife and the kids, then proceeded to shave and clean up for dinner. When the meal was over, he insisted on washing the dishes and sang lustily as his wife looked on in amazement. The job finished, he took off his kitchen apron and found his better half in tears.

"Why, what is the matter, my dear?" he asked.

"Oh! everything has gone wrong today," she said. "The clothes line broke and let the washing down in the dirt. The twins got into a fight at school and came home with black eyes. Mary fell down and tore her dress and, to cap the climax, you came home drunk."

* * * *

Ma:—"I just sent Johnny up stairs. He has been swearing like a trooper."

Pa:—"Swearing again, huh!"

Pa ran upstairs to punish his heir. Having fulfilled his task, he shouted from the top of the stairs:

"I'll teach that boy of mine to swear!"

Suddenly tripping on the carpet at the top landing, he fell the length of the staircase.

Ma:—"Well, I think that will be enough for the first lesson."

* * * *

He:—"Yes, I've always considered Betty a perfect beauty and a nice girl to boot."

She:—"Bill, you ought to be ashamed of yourself."

* * * *

Father (punishing his son):—"You know I am doing this because I love you."

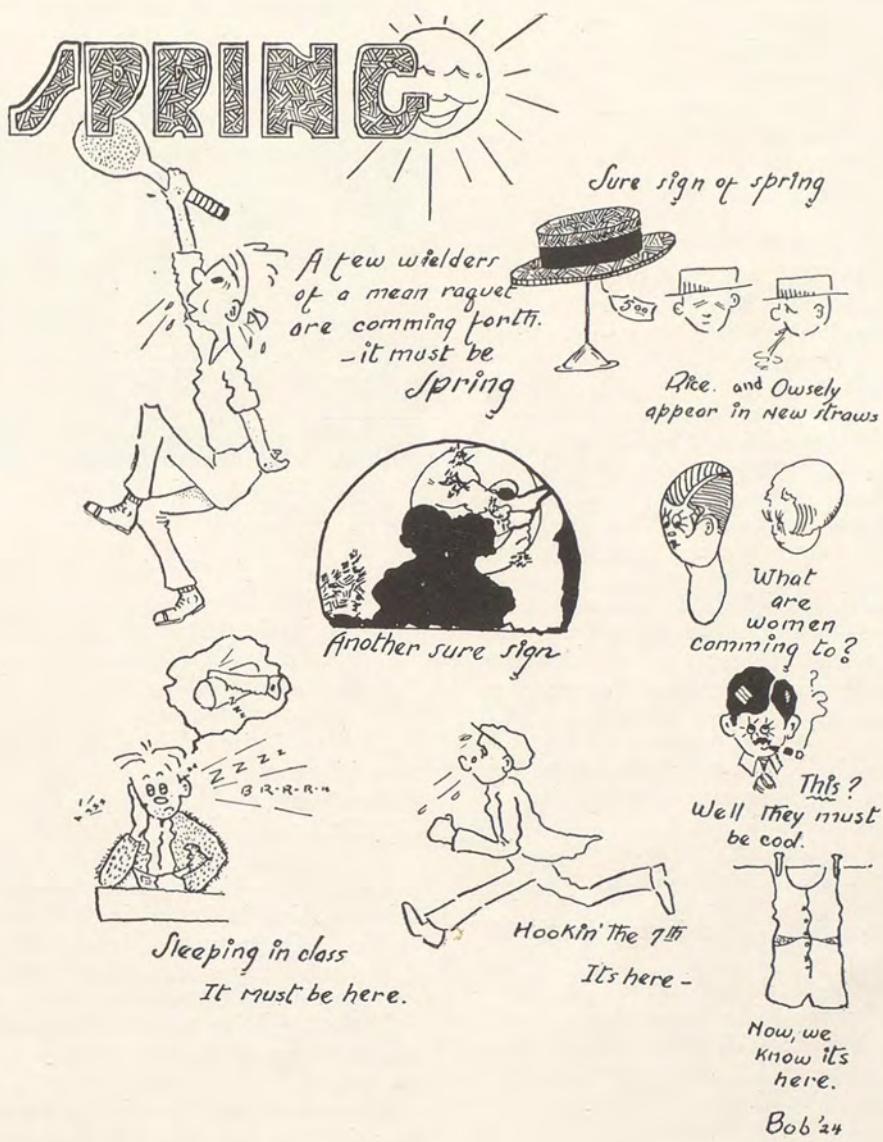

Son:—"And I'm sorry, father that I'm not big enough to return your love."

I DON'T

My parents told me not to smoke,
I don't.
Or listen to a naughty joke,
I don't.
They make it plain
I must not wink
At pretty girls or even think
About intoxicating drink;
I don't.
Wild fellows chase women, wine, and song;
I don't.
I kiss no girls, not even one;
I do not know how it is done;
You wouldn't think I have much fun;
I don't.

Who is the one in Wa-Hi who is never wrong? Regna Wright.

* * * *
Wa-Hi specializes in all makes of vehicles—the one hoss Shea; the Coach; the Schlee; the Ford; the Maxwell; the Page; the Starr; the Gardner and Mong's Moon.

Herbert Clark:—I've got it in my

THE RIME OF THE ANCIENT FORD

It is an ancient auto Ford
And it runs right merrilee.
O, thou deep mud and slippery slime,
By gum, thou stoppeth me!

An angry man came from the seat,
Out of the seat came he,
He cursed with might, in fearsome plight,
With mud up to his knees.

He steppeth about in rain and mud,
It was as wet as the ocean;
He pulled and turned the engine
crank,
With a short uneasy motion.

Then like a pawing horse let go,
It made a sudden bound;
It flung the man into the mud,
He made an angry sound.

What makes the Ford drive on so fast?

What is the engine doing?
"That man had left his car in gear,
And the blame thing he's pursuing."

* * * *
Maid:—I should like to see any man kiss me.

Gentleman:—No doubt, but you shouldn't admit it.

* * * *
Salesman:—Another advantage of this machine is that it is fool-proof.

Mrs. Greenway:—Yes, but you don't know my son.

* * * *
Father:—I have been thinking of retiring soon and leaving the business to you.

Dawson F.:—There is no hurry is there? You go ahead and then we can both retire.

* * * *
Miss Boucher:—"Thought you had an appointment with the dentist?"

Myril Smiley:—"Yes, ma'am I did."

Miss B.:—"Well, I saw you at the ball game."

M. S.:—The tall man sitting next to me was my dentist."

Miss Luccock (after trying third period class):—"Some time ago my doctor told me to exercise early every morning with dumb bells. Will the class join me tomorrow before breakfast?"

* * * *

* * * *

WANTED TO KNOW

Why everybody flunks in chemistry?
Why Ed Fitzgerald goes home by way of Newell street?
Why Dale Whiteman is called "Doc"?
Why Itol Scranton is called "Man Hater"?
Why Martha Moore cut her hair?
Why we don't have more assemblies?
Why Cap Kinman hangs around St. Paul's?
Why our teachers always get married?
Why the vacant forge room isn't used for a battalion supply room?
Why we have to go to school anyway?
Why the joke editor has to be funny?
Why Wade Sims broke the door with his head?

* * * *

"Mrs. Clancy, yer child is badly spoiled."

"Gwan wid yes!"

"Well if you don't believe me, come and see what the steam roller just did to it."

* * * *

What girls receive rings from men they never saw?

Telephone girls.

Martha Moore:—"Who is the dumbest guy on earth?"

Sarah Leonard:—"I dunno."

M. M.:—"The guy who thinks 'Manual Labor' is a Portugese."

S. L.:—"No, no, no! The guy that thinks that Chesapeak Bay is a race horse."

Sis Lutcher:—"No, no, no, the guy that thinks the Mexican Border pays rent."

Esther Maxwell:—"The guy that thinks a football coach has four wheels."

L. Kidwell:—"The guy that stays up all night because the washwoman has his pajamas."

Note:—Kidwell got the fur-lined syrup pitcher.

* * * *

He:—"I'd like to propose a little toast."

She:—"Nothing doin' kid; I want a regular meal."

* * * *

Joke Editor:—"Why don't you laugh at these jokes?"

Freshie:—"I was brought up to respect old age."

* * * *

AN ODE TO BERNICE STRUTHERS

I'm proud of my black Venus,
No coon can come between us,
All along the line they can't outshine
That high born gal of mine.

* * * *

Doc Whiteman:—"I'll get square with you."

Clarence Monroe:—"Good, I'm sick of seeing you 'round."

* * * *

Margery McLean:—"What is the difference between a hairdresser and a sculptor?"

David Mann:—"I don't know. What is it?"

M. M.:—"A hairdressercurls up and dyes, and sculptor makes faces and busts."

* * * *

Jack Shea:—"Would you like to take a nice long walk?"

Loloa Stone:—"Why, I'd love to."

Jack:—"Well, don't let me detain you."

THE REASON

A number of youngsters were playing in the park when a well dressed young man came along and sat on a bench, from which he leaned to watch the kiddies play. Not far away a youngster lay on the grass watching the young man carefully, a fact that the latter soon observed. So he said, "Son, why aren't you off playing with those other kiddies?"

"Oh, I just don't want to," was the reply.

"But a boy of your age ought to want to play with his friends."

"Oh, I am going to soon enough," continued the lad. "I just wanted to see you when you got up. They painted that bench you are sitting on this morning!"

* * * *

Glenn Davidson:—"And why do you think I am a poor judge of human nature?"

Frances Drake:—"Because you have such a good opinion of yourself."

* * * *

Miss Maxwell (in history):—"Henry, can't you tell us the shape of the world?"

Henry Craig:—"Yessum, it is in a pretty bad shape just now."

* * * *

"Oh, will you miss me," warbled the serenading lover.

"Not if I can help it," muttered Dad as he took a windup with the water pitcher.

* * * *

George:—"Why hasn't Daddy much hair?"

Mother:—"Because he thinks a lot, dear!"

George (pause):—"But why have you got so much?"

Mother:—"Get on with your breakfast!!!"

* * * *

Bob P.:—"I always sleep with my gloves on. That's what makes my hands so soft."

Jean B.:—"I suppose you sleep with your hat on also?"

A CLEAN MISS

First Englishman:—"I say, Charlie, did I ever tell you that joke about the Egyptian guide who showed a group of tourists two skulls of Tut-Ankh-Amen, one when he was a boy, the other when he was a man?"

Second Englishman:—"No, let's hear it."

* * * *
IMPOSSIBLE

Will you still love me when I am older and homlier?

Darling, you cannot avoid growing older, but you will never grow homlier.

* * * *
TRIED HARD

Auntie (forty and a bit):—"Going down that dark street I saw a man.

Oh, how I ran!

Little Bobby:—"Did you catch him, Auntie?"

* * * *
Conductor:—"Money in box, please!"

Absent-Minded Prof:—"No, I don't care to help the babies today."

* * * *
Dad (seriously):—"My boy, don't you think it's about time to stand alone?"

Son (cheerfully):—"Sure Dad, I can stand a loan any time."

* * * *
Father:—"Your conversation is exactly like the musical scale."

Daughter:—"Musical Scale, Father."

Father:—"Yes! You start with dough and finish with dough."

* * * *
Patient (running in doctor's office holding his head):—"Give me something for my head, Doc, quick."

Doc:—"I wouldn't take it as a gift"

* * * *
"How do you know he is in love?"

"What else would make a man absent minded enough to put his dirty shirt to bed then jump down the clothes chute."

* * * *
What kind of an otto is Anderson?

In the midst of a train wreck was Ace,
A Jewish gazabo from Thrace;
He was terribly poor,
So, (just to make sure)
He kicked his good wife in the face!

* * * *

"Have you got any good, strong, working socks?"

"Mister, if my socks was any stronger I would go home and leave them running my shop!"

* * * *

Happy:—"I've lived on vegetables for two weeks."

Harry:—"That's nothing. I've lived on earth for twenty years."

* * * *

Dear Editor:—"How can I cure a sleep-walking habit?"

Dear Madam:—"Sprinkle tacks on the floor."

* * * *

Squire:—"Did you send for me, my lord?"

Lancelot:—"Yes, make haste, bring me a can-opener; I've got a flea in my knight clothes."

* * * *

Bolshi:—"Wanna go on a sleighing party?"

Viki:—"Who are we gonna slay?"

* * * *

Conductor:—"Watch your step, Miss."

Edith:—"It is not necessary; there are several sap-heads behind doing that."

* * * *

Jim:—"What is the first thing a fat man does when he gets to the top of a long, steep hill?"

Bim:—"Takes a rest, I guess."

Jim:—"No, he takes off his coat, and pants."

* * * *

Rastus:—"Yo' done said yo' could lick me."

Sambo:—"Uhuh, I sho' did; want to see me demonstrate?"

Rastus:—"No, I's jus' gathering statistics."

* * * *

Soph:—"Can you string beans?"

Prof:—"That remains to be seen."

Why should a frog never go bankrupt?

Because he always has a greenback with him.

* * * *

Ruth Baker:—"What is wind?"

Marjorie Martin:—"Air in a hurry"

M. M.:—"What is steam?"

R. B.:—"Water gone crazy with the heat."

* * * *

Evelyn Clark:—"How can you stand lying in bed so late mornings?"

Henry Craig:—"I don't stand lying in bed. I'm no contortionist."

* * * *

Mrs. Wilson:—"What's the matter darling?"

Lavelle:—"P-Papa hit his finger with a hammer."

Mrs. W.:—"Well, don't cry about it, you should laugh."

Lavelle:—"I-I-I-I did."

* * * *

Margery McLean:—"Why, I haven't been out with a single man this week."

Ben Smith:—"Why pick on married ones?"

* * * *

Betty Church:—"This picture is awful. It is no likeness. I look twenty years older!"

Mr. Harris:—"Pardon me, madam, that is not your portrait! That is a mirror!"

* * * *

Lyman (during a lull in the domestic storm):—"If I were you I'd have more sense."

Maxine:—"Of course you would."

* * * *

American in London (lifting good-sized melon):—"Is this the largest apple you have?"

London Fruit Vender:—"Put down that bloomin' grape."

* * * *

"He who gets slapped" seldom tries again.

Mr. Melosh

A record of the school year at Wa-Hi would not be complete without a mention of Wa-Hi's genial friend and supporter, Mr. E. W. Melosh.

But little is said of what he does for Wa-Hi and yet no one, in a quiet way, does more than he does for the school and for the individuals. He keeps our building immaculately attractive; he keeps us warm; he feeds us. Is there any one person in Wa-Hi who does more for the physical and moral well being of the students than he?

The one characteristic of Mr. Melosh which makes him so valuable to our system is his love for boys and girls and his desire to work for their interests. Such a desire prompted the establishment of the cafeteria, an institution in our high school with which we could ill afford to dispense.

The influence of Mr. Melosh will remain in the minds of all Wa-Hi students as a permanent part of the Wa-Hi Spirit.

The Florida beach and blue seal looked inviting to the tourist, but before going to swim he thought he would make sure.

"You're certain there are no alligators here?" he inquired of the guide.

"No, suh," replied the latter, grinning broadly. "Ain' no 'gators hyah." Reassured, the tourist started out. As the water lapped about his chest he called back: "What makes you so sure there aren't any alligators?"

"Dey's got too much sense," bellowed the guide. "De sharks don skeered dem all away."

The teacher was trying to impress upon her class the difference between prose and poetry. To make her definitions clearly understood she gave these examples:

'Now, class, if I say:

There was an old woman
Who lived on a hill;
If she hasn't moved away
She lives there yet.—That is prose.

But if I say:

There was an old woman
Who lived on a hill,
If she hasn't moved away
She lives there still.—That is poetry.

"Who, in the class, can now give me some examples?" A small boy thrust up an eager hand, and this was his contribution:

"I see a man
Who's digging a well
If he keeps on going
He'll get to _____ Teacher, did you want prose or poetry?"

FIRST IMPRESSIONS

*W*e all know the value of first impression. You desire to have your business presented to the public in its best light and no one thing is so effective in creating this favorable impression as is your business stationery and other printed matter. We are prepared to furnish you with this class of work.

Our representative is always glad to "talk things over" with the prospective printing-buyer—whether an order develops or not! We believe you are entitled to our knowledge of printing technique—and will be glad to advise with you—being perfectly willing to let the job materialize or not, according to your needs.

Put this man-to-man printing service to work in the best interests of YOUR business! It is a proven fact, that printing "gets things done"—systematizes many routine jobs that would otherwise lose you money thru a lack of orderly procedure—and can bring in business just as another salesman would, if you send it out on that errand! Give printing a chance to help!

A MIRACLE

An aged mountaineer who had never cared to go farther than the nearest crossroads hamlet, was finally persuaded to visit relatives in the big city. The first night they took him to a picture show, an institution entirely foreign to him. "How did you enjoy it, uncle?" he was asked on the way home.

"It certainly was a fine show," said the old man, but his voice took on a tone bordering on fear as he continued, "even if I was stricken in thar. Yessuh, my hear'n left me completely an' I never was able to hear one word them actors said."

* * * *

"What is your business?" inquired the hi-jacker as he jabbed his victims ribs.

"I'm a wheat farmer," replied the victim as he elevated his bundle grabbers.

"You poor devil!" said the hi-jacker as a tear dropped off his nose, "Here's a dollar for you."

The Midway

An American, Frenchman and Scotchman were indulging in reminiscence of sporting occasions.

"The closest race I ever saw was a yacht race," said the American, "in which one of the boats which had just been painted won by the breadth of the coat of paint."

"The closest race I ever saw," declared the Frenchman, "was one in which a horse, stung by a bee, won by the height of the swelling on his nose."

"The closest race I ever saw," said the Scotchman, "is the French."

If she sighs with half closed eyes
The while her hand you press,
Don't think she fell, you never can tell,
It may be biliousness.

An Eye to the Future

Those who are making plans for their success cannot realize too strongly the important part a bank can take in maturing their plans.

The Peoples State Bank is a good place at which to build a reserve, lay the foundation for credit and cultivate an acquaintance with those whose business it is to co-operate with people who have an eye to the future.

"If it takes a six months old wood-pecker eight months to peck a hole through a cypress log big enough to make 5000 shingles, how long will it take an eight months old grasshopper with a corkscrew leg, to kick the seeds out of a dill pickle?"

Answer—"As long as it would take the two Morrison brothers to pick 3,000,001 cooties with a pair of sixteen ounce boxing gloves covered with cosmoline out of a Brussels rug."

WHY IS A FORD?

The Ford is my auto, I shall not want. It maketh me to lie down in muddy roads; it leadeth me into much trouble. It draweth on my purse; I go into paths of debt for its sake. Yea, tho I understand my Ford perfectly, I fear much evil lest the radius rods or the axle break. It has a blowout in the presence of mine enemies. I anointeth the tire with a patch. The radiator boileth over. Surely this thing will not follow me all the days of my life, or I will dwell in the house of poverty forever.

MORAL:—Equip your Ford with one of the new improved cuckoo clocks. When the car reaches the speed of twenty-five miles per hour, the bird will come out and sing "Nearer My God to Thee," and at forty miles per hour, "Lord, I am Coming Home."
